104th Marion County Fair Ends Today Communists Rounded Up

JUNIOR FAIR DAY was held Wednesday at the Marion County Fair, marking the next-to-last day of the fair. Today sees the closing session of the annual event. Among Wednesday's activities were judging of floats prepared by local 4-H and F.F.A. chapters, choosing a winning tractor operator, and picking girls to go to Columbus to give demonstrations.

UPPER: The winning float depicted the ingredients which go into making a "Barrel of Happiness." Girls on the float are: Janet Hinamon, health; Marjorie Hinamon, religion; Mary Jane Forry, recreation; Nancy Moreland, safety; Joan Williams, education; Linda Klatt, leadership; and Margie Murphy (left) and Ruth Ann Higgins, stirring the barrel. Standing in front of the float are Carol Harriman, assistant adviser, and Kirk Moreland, adviser. Other members of the club are Judy Campbell, Gail Craycraft, Kay Murphy, Pamela Hassell and Sue Bibler. The float was prepared by the Morrill-Grand Prairie Farmerettes.

LOWER LEFT: Charlotte Stevens (left) and Norma Pletcher of Marlet were chosen to go to the State Fair to give demonstrations on "Laying A Pattern." As a team, they were chosen best among the girls who gave demonstrations on modern living.

LOWER RIGHT: Howard Seckel of Claridon will represent Marion County in the state competition for tractor operators at Columbus Saturday. He was picked best 4-H driver in the county.

Death Claims Triple Jet Ace On Test Flight

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (U)—Death on a routine test flight has ended the spectacular career of Capt. Joseph McConnell Jr., the nation's leading jet ace. The 32-year-old pilot, credited with downing 16 MIGs in Korea, was killed yesterday when his F86H Sabre jet crashed on the Mojave Desert, 12 miles northeast of Rogers Lake.

Body Recovered
His body was found beside his ejection seat, half a mile from the shattered plane. Nearby was his unopened parachute. An Air Force spokesman said apparently he had ejected himself from the plane at low altitude.

During the flight McConnell had radioed that he had lost control of the plane partially, but thought he could make a landing on the dry lake bed. Soon thereafter he reported he had lost the cockpit canopy. He was advised to bail out. Edwards base officers said he probably stayed with the plane too long.

Ace in 30 Days
McConnell, who said his prematurely grey hair came from being the father of three young children and not from his flying, served as a bomber navigator during World War II and later took flight training.
After the fighting broke out in Korea he repeatedly requested combat duty despite being told he was too old. His request finally was granted and he became an ace in just 30 days last year.
After downing his eighth MIG, his Sabre was hit by cannon fire at 40,000 feet near the Manchurian border. He bailed out over the Yellow Sea and a rescue helicopter pulled him from the frigid water.

Six-Day Run Closes 3,500 Visit Junior Event; Thrill Show Set Tonight

The 104th Marion County Fair moved into its final day today after 3,500 persons, including 1,800 paid admissions gathered to help observe Junior Fair Day Wednesday.

At 6 p.m. tonight, the exhibitors will begin to pack up and head either to the State Fair in Columbus, or back to their homes.

WEDNESDAY, Charlotte Stevens and Norma Pletcher of Marlet were chosen to journey to Columbus to give their demonstration on "Laying A Pattern."

The team won the honor in the girls' demonstrations held during the morning. Nancy Earl of Claridon won the junior individual demonstration, showing techniques of first aid. She was not eligible to travel to Columbus though, because of her age, 13.

Jean Lyon and Charlotte Huddle of Grand Prairie won the junior team demonstration showing how to wash a sweater. They also were ineligible for the state fair.

Howard Seckel of Claridon will represent Marion County Saturday in the state tractor driving contest. He was picked as the winner in competition held yesterday morning and will compete with other 4-H Club winners from throughout the state.
A rainstorm in the afternoon wiped out the junior fair parade and forced a county talent show.

Hoover To Go Trout Fishing With President

DENVER (U)—President Eisenhower, however, and former President Hoover, a couple of experts with a trout rod, are going fishing together next week in the Colorado Rockies.

The Summer White House announced today that Hoover will be Eisenhower's guest "for several days" at a ranch retreat at Fraser, Colo., 70 miles northwest of here on the western slope of the Continental Divide.

The vacationing Eisenhower plans to fly back to Washington Monday to address the American Legion National Convention, and

Temperature Skids After Heavy Rains
A little over an inch of rain fell in Marion and area yesterday and last night in showers which continued almost steadily from about 1:15 in the afternoon to 2 o'clock this morning.

At the local weather station, the rain was measured at 1.06 inches. The forecast for tonight is cloudy and cooler with a few showers. The low temperature is expected to be between 50 and 55. Fair weather is forecast for Friday.
From the high temperature yesterday of 87, the mercury dropped to 67 last night. A year ago, the high was 93 and the low 51.

CHARGED WITH MURDER
MANSFIELD, Ohio (U)—George Boggs, 31, of Mansfield yesterday was charged with second degree murder in the fatal beating of Patrick Henry Thomas, 41, of Ravenna. Police said the two men argued after buying a bottle of wine. Thomas was found Monday behind a milling company. He died Tuesday of a fractured skull.

Communists Rounded Up In Brazil as Red-Sparked Anti-U.S. Riots Die Down

3 Key Issues May Bar Asia Defense Pact

8-Nation Conference To Open in Manila Sept. 6 To Draft Plans

WASHINGTON (U)—Foreign secretaries of eight nations meeting in Manila Sept. 6 to form a Southeast Asian defense organization will have three key problems to work out.

Diplomatic sources said they were:

1. How far will the countries go in binding themselves to a common defense of the area.
2. What sort of pledge will they make to combat Communist subversion.
3. What sort of continuing machinery will be set up to keep the countries advised and prepared to meet emergencies.

Views Exchanged

The United States and the other countries pioneering the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization (SEATO)—Britain, France, Australia, New Zealand, the Philippines, Thailand and Pakistan—have made no advance commitments, but have exchanged views on all these points.

Opinions presently range widely with the Philippines and Thailand understood to be urging strong military commitments, and Britain counseling more emphasis on an economic rather than a military approach.

The Philippines was said to be seeking a North Atlantic Treaty Organization type agreement in which an attack on one of the countries would be regarded as an attack upon all of them.

Prefers Limited Approach

Secretary of State Dulles was understood to prefer a more limited approach: an attack on one country would be recognized as a threat to the security of all pact members. This is the principle underlying the Anzus pact, linking the United States, Australia and New Zealand, and also the defense treaty between the United States and the Philippines.

The Anzus formula, milder than NATO, declares that an armed attack on any of the signatories would be considered dangerous to the peace and safety of all and that each nation would act to meet the common danger in accordance with its constitutional processes.

Britain reportedly wants an even milder commitment than that. But the Philippines was said to feel that a treaty organization that failed to go beyond Anzus would not serve the desired purpose of bolstering anti-Communist defenses in the vital Southeast Asia area.

Without Precedent

An anticomunism pledge to deal with one characteristic type of Communist aggression is without precedent in treaty-making procedure. There was believed to be general recognition among the nations concerned of the need for meeting this form of attack.

The third question—that of a continuing SEATO machinery—also drew widely ranging concepts. Proposals vary from creation of an NATO-like military headquarters with a joint staff to a plan for a secretariat representing the eight countries.

BRAZIL'S NEW PRESIDENT AND EDITOR. Clad in pajamas, Joao Filho (center), Brazil's vice president, talks with reporters after being informed that President Getulio Vargas had agreed to take a leave of absence. At right on crutches is crusading editor Carlos LaCorda who was shot in foot in a recent assassination attempt. LaCorda's shooting set off unrest in Brazil. Shortly after this scene took place Vargas killed himself with a pistol shot and Filho assumed the presidency.

Father Missing

Search Crews Find Bodies of 2 Youths

The bodies of two of three members of a Marion family drowned in the Ohio River near Steubenville Tuesday afternoon, were found this morning by searchmen.

Both were found floating in the water, near the spot where their boat had overturned, throwing Arnold Bumgarner, and his two sons, LeRoy, 17, and James, 14, into the river.

The body of LeRoy was found at 11:05 a.m., and the body of James was found about an hour later, just a few feet from the spot where LeRoy's body had risen to the surface.

Searchers continued their efforts to locate the body of the father. The trio had been on a pleasure jaunt on the river, when their 12-foot boat, equipped with an outboard motor, capsized.

The family was visiting in Steubenville at the home of Mrs. Bumgarner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Ensell. They had gone out on the river in the boat around noon.

Witnesses to the tragedy said the wake from a large tow-boat had thrown the small craft out of control and caused it to overturn.

LeRoy Bumgarner was born in Marion March 20, 1938. He would have been a junior at Harding High School this fall. He was a member of the Fraternal Order of Police Teen League baseball team. He was working part-time at the Parish Dairy.

The two are survived by their mother, Mrs. Margaret Elizabeth Bumgarner, a sister, Linda Sue, 10, maternal grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Ensell, and paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Dean

5th Air Force Headquarters To Be Shifted

Will Move to Nagoya In Japan in Phase of Pullout From Korea

SEOUL (U)—The U. S. 5th Air Force announced today plans to pull many of its deadly Sabrejets and other planes out of Korea and shift its headquarters to Nagoya, Japan.

When the Korean armistice was signed 13 months ago the 5th was flying more than 1,000 planes. Announcement of plans to base many of these planes elsewhere follows by only a few days disclosure that four of six U. S. infantry divisions now in Korea are to be withdrawn. Experts said the Army-Air Force withdrawal will pull at least 100,000 Americans out of Korea.

The Air Force did not identify units which will be pulled out. It said some will be based elsewhere in the Far East, while others will return to the United States.

Li Gen. Roger M. Ramey will remain in command of the 5th, but his headquarters will be consolidated with headquarters of the U. S. Japan Air Defense force at Nagoya.

Ramey will command both groups. There was no immediate reaction from the South Korean government.

The ROKs heatedly protested, with parades and demonstrations, the announcement that infantry divisions were to be withdrawn.

15 Hungarians Called in Probe At Cleveland

House Group Begins 2-Day Hearing on Life Under Red Rule

CLEVELAND (U)—A House subcommittee shifted to Cleveland today for further hearings on how the Communist Party seized control of Hungary and how life there has been under the Red regime.

The House Subcommittee on Communist Aggression called 15 witnesses for the two-day session. One of those expected to appear is Nicholas Nyaradi, one-time finance minister of Hungary and now a professor at Bradley University at Peoria, Ill.

Witnesses fearful of Communist reprisals against members of their families still in Hungary will be permitted to wear masks to conceal their identities.

One of the masked witnesses will be a "Mister Z," a college professor from Cleveland whose wife, daughter and grandchildren are still in Hungary. Another daughter was raped by Russia soldiers and later committed suicide.

The subcommittee, under the chairmanship of Rep. Alvin M. Bentley (R-Mich.), yesterday invited a Hungarian bishop to appear before it and tell of religious freedom in Hungary.

The wire was sent to Bishop Albert Bereczky, head of a five-man Hungarian Reformed Church delegation to the World Council of Churches meeting at Evanston, Ill.

All-Out Drive On Outlawed Party Begun

Over 100 Picked Up In Rio de Janeiro as Agitators Are Spotted

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (U)—Police cracked down on the outlawed Communist party today after 48 hours of riots and demonstrations touched off by the suicide of President Getulio Vargas.

Amid increasing evidence the Reds played a strong hand in sparking the riots, aimed in part against the United States, more than 100 Communists were under arrest. One was accused specifically of burning a police car.

Red Papers Seized

Copies of Imprensa Popular, the Communist newspaper which publishes openly despite the ban on the party, were seized by police in Rio de Janeiro. The newspaper headlined its account of yesterday's demonstrations: "Down with Americans." Rio residents shout indignantly in streets.

A dispatch from Porto Alegre said police raided an allegedly Communist paper there and arrested the editor.

This capital city's commercial life gradually returned to normalcy today. Public offices, banks and shops reopened. A few troops still were to be seen on the streets, but the heavily reinforced patrols of the past two days were called in.

Seeks Finance Minister

Joao Cafe Filho, the new President, cast about for someone to fill the ticklish job of finance minister in the inflation-plagued government he inherited. He conferred with individual ministers and scheduled a cabinet meeting.

After 71-year-old Vargas ended his life with a bullet Tuesday, his old friend Oswaldo Aranha, former U.N. Assembly president, resigned as finance minister along with the rest of the Cabinet.

Battles Coffee Crisis

Aranha, who has often been mentioned as a candidate in the 1955 presidential elections, had been seeking in the past few months to steer Brazil through a dire foreign exchange shortage caused mainly by declining coffee exports.

The economic straits Brazil has been going through had much to do with the explosive political-military crisis that shook the country for the past 20 days and culminated in Vargas' suicide following his military—dictated agreement to take a permanent leave of absence.

The rioting crowds that took to the streets to hoot against Vargas, then began demonstrating for the old man when they found he had shot himself, cooled down today after two bloody days that left four dead and scores of wounded throughout Brazil.

Vargas' body lay in state in the town hall of his native Sao Borja in southern Brazil prior to burial today. The Roman Catholic Church banned religious funeral rites because he took his own life but thousands of devoted Brazilians said prayers for the veteran leader's soul.

Trucker Is Held In Man's Death

BUYRUS—Officers from the Buyrus headquarters of the state highway patrol are holding for investigation the Lima driver of a tractor-trailer which struck and killed Otto Meister, 61, farmer of north-east of Buyrus, about 5:30 this morning.

The vehicle, owned by the Emery Transfer Co. was driven by Virgil C. Strayer, 25. Meister was killed instantly. The investigation is being held to determine the cause of the accident, which happened one and three-tenths miles north-east of Buyrus on Route 98, near the Meister home. It is believed that the farmer was going to look after his cows at the time in the course of doing his morning chores.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Huldah Meister, and three sons, Robert, John, and James, all of near Buyrus.

The body was brought to the Munz Funeral Home in Buyrus.

Savings Bonds Sale in County Shows Decline

Sales of Series E and H Savings Bonds for the month of July showed a decrease in Marion County over July of last year. Robert E. White, chairman of the Marion County Savings Bond Committee reported today. Ohio sales of the bonds for July showed an increase of 22.9 per cent however.

Sales for the first seven months nationally were the highest for any January - July period since 1945. Sales of E and H bonds in the first seven months of 1954 exceeded redemption by $263,306,000. A new high record was set when the cash value of E and H bonds outstanding was $37,579,000,000 at the end of July.

Truck Bodies Built Here Speed Mining

TWO GIANT 50-ton dump trucks are making Paul Bunyan look like a piker in the legendary hero's own backyard—the Iron Range.

King-sized bodies and hydraulic hoists for the pair were designed and built by the Marion Metal Products Company. The Marion dump body units were purchased by the Dart Trucking Company of Kansas City, Mo., which mounted them on Dart Model 40-T trucks. After testing, they went into action recently hauling both overburden and iron ore on the Iron Range.

One of the two giant trucks with a Marion dump body unit is shown undergoing tests before it began operations on the Iron Range. The small shovel rig shown is not normally used with this big fellow. It was being replaced by a six-cubic yard shovel on the Iron Range.

They're big in every way. Each truck weighs 65,000 pounds and each body and hoist unit 35,000 bringing the total light weight to about 100,000 pounds. With a peak pay load of 36 cubic yards each truck would tip the scales—4 if there were scales big enough—at 220,000 pounds. Each of the two trucks are powered by two 275 horsepower diesel engines.

At the present time, The Marion Model RB-240 bodies are being loaded with six dipper passes from its six-cubic yard shovel. They have a struck measure of 24-cubic yards and heaped they will take 36 cubic yards.

The entire body is constructed of U. S. Tri-Ten E steel. This is a low-alloy high-strength steel featuring toughness, weldability, workability resistance to abrasion and fatigue, especially under extreme cold, and resistance to atmospheric corrosion. The shell is five-sixteenths of an inch and the floor is 1/4 inch with a 1-inch wear plate. The wear plate itself weighs more than 5 tons.

A special feature of each unit is a heated floor. This allows the units to work in temperatures as low as 60 degrees below zero. It is also valuable in the summer because it dries out sticky loads allowing them to slide out easily when dumped.

The hoists are Marion Model TDA-84-112. They were designed to operate under normal operating pressures of 1,000 pounds per square inch. Present plans call for Marion to develop a 2,000 PSI hoist for even larger capacity units.

contest animals were led into the ring and the youths asked to grade them on various phases used by judges in competition. Grades were then computed and the winners chosen.

Due to an oversight Wednesday, the results of the swine judging in the junior division were not included in the summary of fair results.

Kenneth Collmer of Claidon won the junior showmanship contest in that division edging out Larry Knickel of Pleasant who was second in the senior showmanship contest. Max Brewer of Grand Prairie won, with Larry Kromer of Claidon second.

Brewer also had the grand and reserve champions of all breeds, and the grand and reserve champions in the Duroc class. Kramer had the Poland China champion, Bull Hedges of Prospect had the reserve Poland China champion, while Howard Koehler of Caledonia had the champion Spotted Poland China. John Brown of Pleasant showed the reserve champion in that class.

In the Chester White division, Tom Issler of Prospect had the reserve champion while the senior championship went to the hog shown by Gerald Rider of Pleasant.

Champion Berkshire was shown by Mannas Boger of Waldo, and Ralph Russell of Prospect showed the reserve champion. Richard Gix of Prospect had both champions in the Hampshire breed.

RICHARD LYONS of Meeker

had the champion Tamworth with Richard Dutton of Prospect showing the reserve champion. Senior and reserve champion in the Yorkshire class were shown by Karyle Lee Bore of Prospect.

On tonight's schedule, the closing act of the show, is the Ward Beam Thrill Show, in which the thrill drivers perform stunts with their autos. It begins at 8 p.m.

AUTO LOOTED

Leo Withers of Waldo yesterday afternoon reported to city police the theft of four chrome wheel disks and part of a tail light from his car parked at the Marion County Fairgrounds. He reported the theft took place between 10:30 and 11 p.m. Tuesday. Loss amounted to $25, police said.

Parties 'Evenly Matched'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republicans and Democrats are putting their political blue chips down in 17 states in an all-out battle for control of the Senate in the 84th Congress.

These same states, along with nine others where there are marginal districts, also may prove to be the major battlegrounds in contests for command of the new House.

As the situation now stands with active campaigning just starting, the two parties appear almost evenly matched in their chances to alter the present headline margins in Senate and House.

The Senate lineup is now 48 Republicans, 47 Democrats and 1 independent, the House count, 218 Republicans, 213 Democrats, 1 independent and 3 vacancies. Thirty-seven Senate and all 435 House seats are at stake this fall.

As party leaders analyze the matter, nine Senate seats now held by Republicans and eight held by Democrats are in varying degrees of danger.

Republican incumbents who apparently face stiff challenges include Senators Cooper of Kentucky, Cordon of Oregon, Dworshak of Idaho, Ferguson of Michigan, Mundt of South Dakota, Saltonstall of Massachusetts and Kuchel of California. Republican-held seats in New Jersey and Wyoming also fall within this category.

Tough Fights Seen

Democrats likely to be hard pushed by their opponents include Senators Anderson of New Mexico, Douglas of Illinois, Frer of Delaware, Gillette of Iowa, Humphrey of Minnesota, Murray of Montana and Burke of Ohio. The seat being vacated by Sen. Johnson of Colorado also is among these.

House seats in most of these states will be hotly contested. In addition there are marginal districts in Virginia, West Virginia, Florida, North Carolina, Maryland, Missouri, Pennsylvania, New York and the Nevada at-large contest where both parties figure they have a chance.

That doesn't mean that states like Connecticut, Indiana, Kansas, Washington and Wisconsin will be overlooked. But the parties' major national efforts are likely to be turned elsewhere except perhaps for a few individual congressional districts.

Democrats Claim Edge

In Senate races, Democrats are claiming a 14-6 edge over Republicans in what they regard as almost certain victories. Republicans contend they are certain to elect two senators in New Hampshire, two in Nebraska and re-elect Senators Schoepel of Kansas and

Hoover

Hoover will return to Denver from the capital with the President that evening.

On the way back Eisenhower will stop at Des Moines for a brief informal talk at the Iowa State Fair, and Hoover will accompany him to the fair grounds.

James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, said Eisenhower and Hoover will drive to Fraser either that evening or Tuesday morning. They probably will remain there until Sept. 3 or 4.

Hagerty also announced the party may be joined there by Dr. Milton Eisenhower, the President's brother and president of Pennsylvania State College.

Ranch Headquarters

Headquarters will be the ranch—nearly 10,000 feet high in the Rockies—of two old friends of the President, Aksel Nielsen and Carl Norgren.

Eisenhower vacationed there in 1952 and again last summer. This year as on the last two occasions, he probably will do most of the cooking.

Like Eisenhower, Hoover—who was 80 years old on Aug. 10—has been a fishing enthusiast for many years.

Both men are experts at dry fly casting.

Three minor traffic accidents none involving injury, were reported in the city Wednesday by city police.

One accident at 4 1/2 p.m. at 641 Van Buren St. resulted in the arrest of man on a hit-skip charge.

He was Robert Mosley, 31 of 528 N. Main St. arrested an hour and a half after his car struck a parked truck owned by Vernis Street of 564 Decatur St.

Mosley, headed north on Decatur St., made a right turn onto Van Buren and hit the truck in the side pushing it over into a tree. The front end of the Mosley car was damaged.

Two cars were damaged in an accident at 9 18 a.m. at 159 N. State St.

The vehicles involved were driven by Deloris Williams, 23 of near Marion and Leopal Stevens, 53 of 615 N. Greenwood St. Both headed south on State St., the accident occurred when the Williams car pulled away from a parking space.

A collision at W. Center and Leader Sts. at 1 06 p.m. resulted in damage to two vehicles.

Kenneth McGuire, 22 of Nevada and Lawson W. Johnson, 27 of 218 E. Farming St. were drivers of the cars.

McGuire was going west on Center St. and Johnson north across Center St. when the mishap occurred. McGuire attempted to stop for the light at Leader and Center St. and slid into the rear of the Johnson car which was making a left turn off of Center onto Leader.

The front of the McGuire car was damaged while there was damage to the right rear of the Johnson vehicle.

Driver Uninjured In Morrow Mishap

An unidentified car struck the rear of a car driven by Ralph Norman, 19, of Mount Gilead, at the intersection of two Morrow County roads last night and sent the Norman car into a telephone pole and a ditch, according to state highway patrolmen from the Marion post.

The accident was one of two investigated by the patrol outside Marion County yesterday.

Norman was traveling south on Morrow County Road 24 about 8 15 p.m. when the unknown auto made a north turn onto the road from County Road 125, skidded on the wet pavement and hit the rear of Norman's car. The Norman vehicle skidded into a ditch and hit a telephone pole. The left rear side of the car was heavily damaged.

Leo Hamilton, 33 of Mount Gilead, was cited to appear in Mayor Emery Murphy's court at Mount Gilead Saturday for improper backing as the result of a two-car collision in Morrow County on Route 35, two and one-half miles east of Mount Gilead. The mishap occurred about 6 p.m. Wednesday when Hamilton backed his car out of his driveway onto Route 35 and into the front of a car driven by Jean Elizabeth Zwyer, 19, of Mount Gilead. The front of the Zwyer car was extensively damaged while there was light damage to the right rear of the Hamilton auto.

'Road to Dictatorship' Communism Denounced In World Church Report

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—A report denouncing communism as the road to 'totalitarian dictatorship' and making some criticism of democratic action by Christian leaders today.

The report was discussed by delegates to the Assembly of the World Council of Churches yesterday in afternoon and evening sessions. Delegates to an assembly representing 163 denominations in 48 countries.

The 51 page document concerns the main theme of the convention, 'Christ—the Hope of the World.'

Some who joined the debate stated it didn't lay enough stress on the second coming of Christ.

Others contended it didn't place sufficient emphasis on the possibility of achieving justice, with Christ's aid in this world.

And some figured it didn't go far enough in condemnation of communism as a 'false hope.'

Archbishop Michael of New York head of the Greek Orthodox Church in North and South America and one of the six new presidents of the council asserted:

'False doctrines which are mentioned in the report, especially that of communism threaten the whole of human existence. All of these dehumanize life.'

McGuire was going west on Center St. and Johnson north across Center St. when the mishap occurred. McGuire attempted to stop for the light at Leader and Center St. and slid into the rear of the Johnson car which was making a left turn off of Center onto Leader.

The front of the McGuire car was damaged while there was damage to the right rear of the Johnson vehicle.

The 'main theme' report was placed before the assembly by a coordinating committee. Submitted with it was a statement from the coordinating group in the nature of a report on its work and its findings.

Delegate after delegate went to the rostrum to comment on the report or the statement—many to quibble over a word or to suggest a change in phrasing.

The right session ended without a vote. No time was set for renewal of debate and a decision.

The assembly, now in the 12th day of its 17-day meeting, also will act on reports on other subjects and on an overall message before the session ends Aug. 31.

Analyses Governments

A 10-page section of the 'main theme' report is devoted to forms of contemporary governments and movements.

Under communism, it states, 'happiness, justice and love are no longer possible and man in the class struggle is no longer truly man.'

'The Communist doctrine of the dictatorship of the proletariat has led in most cases to totalitarian dictatorship in which the freedom of man is in fact denied,' it says.

The report says democracy is founded upon 'Christian tradition' and in its basic beliefs is a 'child or step-child of Christian belief and Christian compassion.' It adds:

'To Christian teaching it owes, in large part its recognition of the worth of every person of the fundamental equality of all men as human beings of their interdependence and of their mutual obligation to one another.'

'But inequality, discrimination, injustice, reliance on naked power, exploitation and aggression are not absent from democracies.'

Mansfield Guard Found Lying Near Tracks in Crestline

CRESTLINE — A 25-year-old Crestline man, who is employed as a guard at the Mansfield Reformatory, was found lying along the west side of the New York Central Railroad tracks early this morning.

Robert Armstrong, 25, of 1012 E. Main St., Crestline, was seen lying along the tracks, located near the center of town, about 5 a.m. today by an engineer on a passing train. Police were notified and Armstrong was removed to Emergency Hospital in an ambulance.

Police Chief Ralph Taylor said investigation of the case is under way and that it is not clear whether Armstrong was hit by a train or what happened.

A Crestline physician, Dr. J. A. Agnew, who is attending the Crestline Reformatory, would not release information as to injuries. Officials at Emergency Hospital said Armstrong is in "good" condition, however.

Armstrong, who has been a guard at the Mansfield Reformatory for about two years, worked until 11 o'clock last night. He resides in Crestline with his wife and two children.

"Statements made by members of your delegation to the effect that complete religious freedom exists today in Hungary are in direct conflict with testimony taken and pending before this committee," the message said.

It invited the bishop to "refute the evidence" and answer questions either at the Cleveland hearings or at a special session the committee would hold in Chicago for his convenience.

There was no immediate reply to the wire. It was sent as the subcommittee concluded its three-day session in New York.

Discrimination

By George Sokolsky

SOKOLSKY

If the United Nations did not enjoy extraterritoriality on American soil, the New York State FEPC might be applied to an employment policy that discriminates against Americans. The following advertisement appeared in a New York newspaper:

THE WORD, NOT in relation to "a U. S. national" is capitalized. What is wrong with an American telegraphist? This is not a policy-making position that requires a balance among the various member states. It is a way-down position, paying $3060 a year, which is none too much for a telegraphist in New York, although the fringe benefits may make it a very good job.

It may be that Americans are objected to as employees of the U. N. because of some complicated income tax situation. Or, maybe the U. N. does not want all sorts of troubles with "Fifth Amendment Communists," of whom they must already have had their fill since the McCarran committee and a federal grand jury brought them to boot.

I could, of course, spend some time discovering why the U. N. officials are so positive that they do not want an American telegraphist on their staff, but, I am sure, I should not be much wiser after the attempt.

What I find interesting in this connection is the nature of extraterritoriality and the rights under it. The United Nations and many of its foreign employees and, to a degree, certain Americans employed there, are not bound by the laws of the United States.

There is a treaty and an agreement with the State Department which set forth the rights of all sides. For the Americans, this is limited to their presence on United Nations property; for aliens, it applies wherever they may be.

IT IS the extraterritorial provisions which make it possible for certain countries to use this privilege as a cover for espionage operations, although no country is supposed to use the U. N. for such activities. However, the McCarran committee two years ago exposed an American group in the U. N. engaged in Soviet espionage.

Extraterritoriality is an ancient and well-preserved procedure in the relations of nations. It was originally designed to protect the messenger, the negotiator, the bearer of good or bad tidings from being murdered or taken hostage.

The United States enjoys these privileges in other countries as it grants them in this country. It can be a very great privilege. I lived under extraterritoriality in China for about 13 years and know the advantages of being outside the law when others are required to live within the law. It is, in effect, the right of a king.

The United Nations becomes a special case because of its huge employment of personnel and its presence in the large and complicated city of New York. For instance, the "UN" license plate on an automobile standing where it has no right to be is always an irritant to American who may not park in such places. It is a small matter, but annoying.

IN THE EARLY days of the U. N., some of its great men took advantage of their privilege to violate traffic laws, but this habit was so ably publicized that apparently somebody talked about it and the tendency to ignore traffic regulations has practically disappeared.

If any of us published an advertisement in New York State to the effect, let us say, that Negroes need not apply, we would be fined under the FEPC. As a matter of fact, no newspaper would publish such an advertisement in New York because it would be unlawful. The United Nations, however, may issue an advertisement that says, Americans need not apply for the position indicated.

That is an example of how extraterritoriality can be made to apply and to go unnoted. Perhaps the U. N. will have to import its janitors and street cleaners to assert its independence of the United States.

Oregon Man To Climb Wyandot Courthouse

UPPER SANDUSKY—Johnny J. Wood, of Portland, Ore., called the "human fly" will attempt to climb up the north face of the Wyandot County courthouse Friday at 7:30 p.m. under the auspices of Wyandot Post No. 225, American Legion. In case of inclement weather the climb will be staged Saturday at the same hour.

Admission to the event will be one can of food or boxed cereal, and distribution of the articles will be made by the Junior Service Guild. Children attending must be accompanied by a parent.

Clean Carpets Like Playing Shuffleboard

What is believed to be the greatest scientific advancement in home carpet cleaning is being marketed under the name of Blue Lustre. All you do is vacuum carpet, apply Blue Lustre foam with long handle brush applicator (it's as easy as playing shuffleboard), let dry and vacuum. The results are amazing. We are proud to be among the nation's first stores to offer Blue Lustre. Unier's third floor.

Warden Declares Jails Overloaded

CHICAGO (U. S. — Chicago's City Jail and Correctional Farm are jammed with prisoners, Warden Frank Sain said today. The farm near suburban Hinsdale is so overcrowded, Sain said, that prisoners have been sleeping on floors "and wherever they could." The farm, with a capacity of 500 prisoners, now houses 874. Sain said the overcrowding at the farm is the result of an overflow of inmates at The Bridewell, the city's house of correction. It has a capacity of 1,800 prisoners and houses 2,426.

Cult Ethics

The cult which makes a sun-god of J. Robert Oppenheimer has done this nation great and perhaps irreparable harm.

RIESEL

These "intellectuals," some well meaning and some political, have painted a picture of a nation of dolts and flat-footed detectives, obsessed by a hysterical drive for loyalty and security which allegedly is crushing our souls and our ability to think.

This has cost us vital cultural and intellectual support in other countries. That always translates itself eventually into loss of military support as well. Somehow cults like the Oppenheimer squads never can find decency in anyone else. Yet to find decency and freedom they need look no further than the very atomic proving grounds which catapulted J. Robert and our atomic security system into controversial headlines. From Sept. 9 to Sept. 11, those secret grounds will prove that J. Robert's band not only is wrong but deliberately disdains the opportunity to utter a few salutary words in behalf of our land.

DURING THOSE early September days there will meet in Los Alamos a militant, New Deal union, led by an outspoken critic of President Eisenhower, a political enemy of the Republican party and one who has denounced the GOP as vehemently as Walter Reuther or any other caustic cen-surer of the White House.

The union, the nation's third largest, is the International Assn. of Machinists (AFL). Its leader is Al J. Hayes, a veteran New Dealer.

Furthermore, this annual strategy meeting of the union's Atomic Energy Conference, representing 10,000 workers on our most secret thermonuclear weapons, has been facilitated by the FBI and the Atomic Energy Commission's own security system.

When the parley opens for discussions of the union's relationship to the government and the giant companies which make the big bomb and its grim parts, every delegate will have special government security clearance.

If they are not all seated at the sessions, it won't be the government's fault. The FBI and the AEC security people took precious man-hours out of horrendous schedules to make it possible for the Machinists Union conference to meet on the highly restricted government reservation.

THE UNION REPORTS that in addition to its members in the Los Alamos Scientific Laboratory, most of the nation's other leading atomic development sites will be represented by delegates.

These will come in from Oak Ridge, Tenn.; from the Argonne National Laboratory, in Chicago; from General Electric's plants in Hanford, Wash., and the highly secret Schenectady, N.Y., installations; from Westinghouse's Arco Falls, Idaho, site; National Lead in Fernand, O.; American Car and Foundry in Albuquerque, N.M.; Bendix in Kansas City, Mo.; Dow Chemical Co., Rocky Flats, Colo.; Proctor and Gamble Defense

By Victor Riesel

Corp., Amarillo, Tex., and the Silas Mason Co., Burlington, Iowa. There will also be delegates from the union lodges whose members work for companies constructing and maintaining atomic installations.

A listing of these groups is vital, for it reveals that the delegates, together, represent a pool of almost complete knowledge of our basic weapon production.

Yet our government did not hesitate to permit this three-day gathering on its most secret of military sites.

Our security people trust this union — critic of the White House though it be. They trust its leadership and its rank-and-file officers. Our government felt it was no breach of faith with the people of our land to permit this union conference to be held at Los Alamos.

IT WILL BE held — and with political overtones. The star speaker will be a former Truman cabinet member, Sen. Clint Anderson of New Mexico, a member of the Joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy. You can make book that at this moment of controversy over atomic energy installation contracts, Clint won't exactly make a campaign speech for his political opponents in the White House.

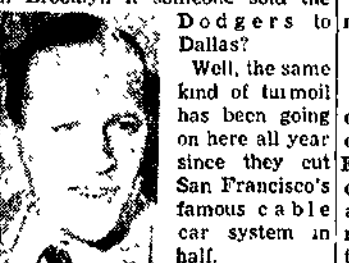

Furthermore, the U. S. government today owns 32 cities — atomic energy cities. There is as much freedom in each of these federally owned municipalities as there is at Los Alamos.

The test in clearing the International Assn. of Machinists delegates was — can they be trusted? Nothing else. Could not J. Robert's embattled boys say something nice about this? (Post-Hall Syndicate)

City's Trademark

By Hal Boyle

SAN FRANCISCO Can you imagine the uproar in Paris if someone proposed razing the Eiffel Tower? Or the screams in Brooklyn if someone sold the Dodgers to Dallas?

HAL BOYLE

Well, the same kind of turmoil has been going on here all year since they cut San Francisco's famous cable car system in half.

"If we're out to ruin the city," why not chop the Golden Gate Bridge in half, too?" demand die-hard defenders of the cable car. The cable car, long a symbol of San Francisco to the nation, was regarded as one of the wonders of the West after its invention here in 1873. Today thousands of motorists regard the antiquated little Toonerville-type trolleys, which are pulled by whirling underground cables, as one of the unfortunate transportation blunders of history.

BUT THE SLOW-MOVING little cars ("ladies will remain seated; gentlemen may ride standing outside at their own risk") are beloved by tourism-pride San Franciscans. Millions of tourists wouldn't think their visit to the city complete without one. It gives them the thrilling feeling of a brief journey back into an adventurous past.

But time has passed the cable car by in terms of efficiency. They cost three times as much to operate as a bus, move only about half as fast, and are great middle-of-the-road traffic blockers.

Faced with these stern facts, the Board of Supervisors last January cut the 11-mile cable car track-in half. It retained the historic lines that would give visitors the most picturesque views of the city.

But an immediate outcry arose, nationally and locally: "Save the cable cars!"

LETTERS POURED in from all over America urging that the cable car was the vocal soul of old San Francisco, and must not be lost. Indignant citizens last June passed, among other measures, an amendment to the city charter providing that the cable car should be part of San Francisco forever. But, significantly, some 60,000 voters straddled the fence by refusing to vote on the issue.

That should have settled the problem, but it hasn't. Sentimentalists, perhaps including many who haven't stepped on a cable car since the invention of the automobile, have kept the fight raging. They still feel, although bewildered officials protest 'tain't so, the curtailment of the cable car network is only the first step in a dark plot to abandon it altogether.

So sound trucks still roll through Chinatown blaring the embattled wail cry in Chinese: "Save the cable cars!" A campaign is under way by enthusiasts to force the city to restore, or even enlarge, the lost cable car trackage.

If they succeed, this will take a bit of doing — as it would require the cable cars to run part of their route the wrong way down one-way streets.

SUPPORT FOR THIS program is less than lukewarm among many city motorists.

"Some of these nuts probably would be in favor of going back to the ox car," snarled one driver. "If they had to try to drive a car two blocks uphill through heavy traffic behind one of those cable monstrosities, that would cure some of their quaint ideas."

The odds seem to be that progress and the past will compromise. In an effort to pour balm on civic wounds, Mayor Elmer E. Robinson has appointed a committee to organize an annual four-day festival to honor the cable car.

"We hope," said a hopeful committee member, "the festival will some day rival the Mardi Gras in New Orleans."

It looks like the cable car, 81 years after its birth, will remain as permanent a part of San Francisco's scenery as its celebrated fogs.

William C. Stepp, missionary on furlough from Venezuela, South America, will be in Marion tomorrow night as guest speaker at the Assembly of God Church at 624 Herman St. The service at 7:30 will be open to the public, the pastor, Rev. John W. Blair, announced.

Mr. Stepp will tell of some of his experiences in the development of Assemblies of God mission in Venezuela. Going there in 1948, he has served under appointment of the Foreign Missions Department of Assemblies of God with headquarters at Springfield, Mo. He established the second Assemblies of God work in Caracas, where he was stationed, and held evangelistic services and established outstations in the interior of the country.

Serving as president of the Venezuelan Christ's Ambassadors, a young people's organization, he organized and sponsored youth conventions and rallies.

In the course of his work he has held camp meetings on the plains near Colombia in the state of Apure at which as many as 3,000 Indians met each morning at 4 a.m. for prayer. Prior to going to Venezuela, he was a pastor at Willard, O. He is a graduate of Central Bible Institute at Springfield, Mo. At the end of his furlough period he plans to go to the eastern part of Venezuela to open the first Assemblies of God mission station there. At present he is visiting various churches of the denomination to raise funds for the establishing of his new work.

Swimming Was Good In Flooded Underpass

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP)—The Sherman Boulevard youngsters had a big time swimming in the flooded underpass yesterday after a downpour—until Sgt. Joe Burkhardt started wondering why the water didn't run out when the rain stopped.

Burkhardt waded in and found the underpass drains tightly blocked with old cement sacks.

$22,000 Requested By Bucyrus Man In 3 Court Actions

BUCYRUS — A total of $22,000 is asked in three actions filed in Crawford County Common Pleas Court here as a result of an auto accident in Bucyrus on Feb. 5, 1933.

Plaintiff is Ernest Mahan, Bucyrus, husband and executor of the estate of his wife with Doris M. Stoffer, as administratrix of the estate of Gerald A. Stoffer, late of Gallion, as defendant.

Mahan alleged his wife died as a result of injuries received when his car was struck by one driven by Stoffer, who died last January. The plaintiff asks $2,000 for personal injuries, $10,000 on behalf of three adult children, Hazel Sybert, Walter and Ira J. Rex, and an additional $10,000 for pain, suffering and expenses incurred by Mrs. Mahan as a result of the accident. Mahan, in his petition, states that the defendant has rejected all claims. He charges that Stoffer was driving in excess of 50 miles an hour on a Bucyrus residential street when he struck the Mahan car.

Crawford Judge Okays $2,000 Estate Payment

BUCYRUS — Crawford County Probate Judge Constance R. Keller has approved a $2,000 settlement in the estate of Ralph Petersilge, 63, Bucyrus, who died after he was struck by a car in Washington Square here last Jan. 21.

Part of the settlement will go to Petersilge's mother, Mrs. Anna Petersilge, 86, Bucyrus. The settlement was reached by attorneys for the Petersilge estate and those representing William G. Mathias, 27, Bucyrus, driver of the car which struck Petersilge, a roofing contractor.

Indians Edge Athletics in 10th, Move to Washington

Naragon Sparks Overtime Victory; Lemon Wins 19th

WASHINGTON (AP) — Cleveland's Indians, weary after two rugged encounters with the Philadelphia Athletics, moved to the calmer waters of the nation's Capital today for a three-game series.

The outlook appeared just what the Tribesmen need before they meet Boston and New York. Washington's Senators have won only three of 18 games with the Indians this season and their mound staff is filled with aches and pains.

Bob Porterfield, Maury McDermott and Frank Shea are the ailing hurlers. The situation is further complicated by the fact that three other starters were used up in double headers Sunday and Monday and a fourth pitched Tuesday night.

After losing Tuesday night, the Indians had to go to 10 innings before trimming the Athletics 4-3 last night. Hal Naragon came through with a triple to score Bill Glynn, who had opened the inning with a walk.

Naragon's drive to the right-center field scoreboard was the only clutch hit of the two-game series and enabled Bob Lemon to become the first major leaguer to win 19 games. It also was his 10th straight victory.

Lemon was removed in the last inning when Jim Finigan doubled with two out, and Mike Garcia pitched the final out.

The Indians went ahead in the opening inning on Al Smith's one-run homer, but the Athletics bounced back with a pair of runs in their half of the inning.

Lemon and tobacco - chewing Sonny Dixon then dueling on fairly even terms until the sixth when Bill Renna singled, moved to second on a passed ball and advanced to third on an infield out. Left Wilson's chalk line double to left field brought him home. That made it 3-1 and ended the A's scoring for the night.

With one out in the eighth, Bobby Avila and Larry Doby both singled and then Al Rosen hit a sharp grounder to Jim Finigan at third. Avila scored when the rookie booted the ball and Vic Wertz followed with a double that scored Doby and tied up the game.

Naragon's blow was another of the blue chip variety he has been turning in this season. Although he has batted in only 10 runs, eight of them have been game-winning blows.

Early Wynn, shooting for his 18th victory against nine losses, will go to the mound for the Tribe tonight, opposing Chuck Stobbs.

Stranahan Tops Ward In Amateur

DETROIT (AP) — The field in the 54th National Amateur Golf Championship was divided between a few "haves" and a lot of "have nots" — speaking in terms of national reputations — as the last 16 survivors set out on another double round of 18-hole matches.

And standing out head and shoulders above the rest was Frank Stranahan, who must be numbered among the "haves" in any way of reckoning. The muscular 32-year-old Toledo sparkplug has won national championships in three countries, including the coveted British Amateur twice. And he's dead set on winning the American title — the only important one that has escaped him.

The 16 players left of an original field included, along with Stranahan, Dale Morey, Don Cherry, Bill Campbell, Bob Sweeney, Ed Meister and Arnold Palmer, all players with more than a little fame in amateur circles.

There was no assurance at all that these seven would survive today's fifth and sixth rounds. The lineup was such that almost any one could go the way of Billy Joe Patton, the fast-talking, wild-shooting North Carolina gallery idol; Internationalist Harvie Ward and Jim Jackson; and long-hitting Hobart Manley and Dave Smith, all of whom were eliminated in yesterday's double knockout.

Stranahan, who stopped Ward on the 18th hole yesterday and then disposed of another old acquaintance, Tommy Sheehan, ran right into another rugged match against Cleveland's Palmer, who has been shooting about as good golf as any amateur around this summer.

Waldo Horse in Dead Heat at Delaware Oval

Pauline Majesty, owned by C. E. Graham of Waldo and trained and driven by C. E. Angus of Delaware finished in a dead heat recently at the Brandywine Raceway at Wilmington, Del.

The dead heat was the first in five years at the Delaware track. The race was run Aug. 20 and marked the first start for the Marion County horse on the eastern track.

More than half the Americans drowned each year are rural people.

Mid-Ohio Conference Football Activities Discussed at Meeting

Final plans for the 1954 football season were discussed last night at a dinner meeting of the Mid-Ohio Conference at Hotel Harding.

Marion's St. Mary, Cardington, Mount Gilead, Elm Valley, Olen-tangy, Richwood and Big Walnut are members of the newly-formed high school athletic league. With the exception of Richwood, all en-tries were represented at last night's meeting.

Uniform colors for home and road games were discussed and plans for the issuance of complimentary tickets were studied.

League coaches passed a resolution giving each school the option to use rubber footballs during the coming season. The resolution was passed after Ray Robinson, head coach at St. Mary, suggested the league study the possibility of using the rubber balls. He told the group, the Irish had tested the balls and found them highly satisfactory. He pointed out

Red Hurlers Fail Again, Brooks Win

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Cincinnati Red pitching staff, which has allowed a total of 34 runs in the last three games, got a much needed rest today.

The pitchers don't go back to work until tomorrow against Pittsburgh, usually an easy target for the Reds.

But the Cincinnati pitching—bad all season—has become worse.

The Brooklyn Dodgers clubbed five Red pitchers for five home runs, three doubles and four singles in trouncing the Reds 13-2 last night. The Bums tallied 12 runs the night before and St. Louis scored nine in the Cincinnati's previous contest.

Gil Hodges and Al Walker smashed two homers each and Carl Furillo joined the home run parade in the fifth inning when three of the circuit clouds were hit.

Hodges' pair put his home run production this season to 34 and his runs-batted-in count to 100, the sixth straight season he's hit that figure.

Cincinnati's first baseman, Ted Kluszewski, also joined the elusive century mark when his double in the fourth inning drove home Roy McMillan, who had walked.

Billy Loes, Brooklyn right-hander, permitted only three hits, but all were for extra bases. Bob Adams doubled to open the sixth frame and Jim Greengrass homered in the seventh, his 24th of the year. Loes struck out five and walked five. Two of his bases on balls came in the seventh inning when a blister started bothering him. He was lifted in the eighth for a pinch-hitter and Jim Hughes finished, settling the Reds down without difficulty.

It was the eighth straight victory for the 24-year-old Loes and his 10th win in 13 decisions.

Bud Podbielan started for the Reds and was tagged for the loss, his seventh in 14 decisions. He was succeeded without too much difference in the ability of the Dodgers to hit, by Fred Baczewski, Jackie Collum, Harry Perkowski and Frank Smith. They gave up a total of seven walks and both Baczewski and Collum hit Brooklyn batters with pitched balls.

Finn Called Winner Russians Protest Decision In 'Wrong Way' Marathon

BERN, Switzerland (AP) — Five judges pondered, debated, and then came up early today with a solution for the European Games' "wrong way" marathon that even Solomon might have envied.

So the track and field games entered their second day with an unprecedented squabble and a decision that will take its place in athletic annals.

Last night Ivan Filin, a Russian coat miner, came into the Neufeld Stadium with a comfortable lead in the marathon. But he turned left when he should have gone right.

The Russians protested bitterly that he had been misdirected and that the officials' error had cost the 28-year-old runner victory in his first international marathon.

During utter confusion and in semidarkness, Veikko Karovonen of Finland rushed into the stadium, circled one lap of the 400-meter track and finished first. Another Russian, Boris Grischauer, also slipped home for second place. Meantime, Filin had been told of the error of his ways, and returned and made the right turn and finished third.

For more than four hours, the jury of these fifth European Track and Field Championships — two Frenchmen, a Swede, a Briton and a Russian—argued the matter.

The judges finally conceded Filin would have triumphed had he not made the wrong turn. Then they unanimously decided that the order of finish would remain the same but that Filin would receive a good medal identical with that of the winner. The inscription of Filin's medal would not mention his third place, only his time of 2 hours 25 minutes 26.6 seconds.

Karovnan was timed in 2:24:51.6 and Grischauer in 2:24:55.6.

The marathon fiasco stole the glory from the extraordinary Zatopek family. Emil, the incredible Czech, won as he pleased in the 10,000-meter race. His time of 28:58 was second only to his world record of 28:54.2.

At the same time his wife Dana beat out a trio of favored Russians in the javelin with a heave of 52.91 meters (173 feet 7.11 inches).

NEW YORK (AP) — Back in the limelight again with three straight victories, hard-hitting Moses Ward of Detroit is after a return bout with Willie Troy now.

Ward, a 22-year-old auto worker, handed Tuzo (Kid) Portu-guez of Costa Rica a sound drubbing last night in a television 10-rounder in Madison Square Garden. He won on a technical knockout in 1:23 of the fifth round.

In the process, however, he suffered a cut over his right eye that required three stitches and just about canceled out a proposed match with Joey Giardello, top-ranking middleweight contender, in Philadelphia Sept. 24.

"The chances of such a bout now are remote," said Harry Markson, managing director of the International Boxing Club. "We may put Ward in with Troy on a later date."

Lemon Approaching Best Year

Hurler Nears 20 Triumphs For Sixth Time

By The Associated Press

Bob Lemon, who moved from obscurity in the outfield to stardom on the mound, needs only one more victory to complete his sixth season of 20 or more triumphs.

Only one other active pitcher—Lemon's Cleveland teammate Bob Feller—has enjoyed such success.

It took the 33-year-old right-hander eight seasons of professional ball to decide to concentrate on pitching. But once he put his mind to it in 1948, he became a 20-game winner immediately.

Only a slump in 1951, when he posted a 17-14 record, mars his record.

Percentage-wise, 1954 could be Lemon's best year. He won his 19th game last night, 4-3 over Philadelphia in 10 innings, and he has lost only five. The last 10 triumphs have come in succession.

Always a workhorse, Lemon has lost at least 10 every year. Last season he finished with a 21-15 mark. He's the first hurler in either league to reach 19 this year.

The Indians had to struggle for their success last night, coming from two runs behind to tie the score at 3-3 in the eighth, then winning on a walk and Hal Narragon's triple in the 10th. Second place New York and third-place Chicago also won, leaving Cleveland 4½ in front of the Yankees and 8½ ahead of the White Sox.

The Yankees defeated Baltimore 5-1 and Chicago beat Washington 7-2. Boston whipped Detroit 5-3.

Brooklyn and Milwaukee gained half a game each in the National League when rain washed out New York's scheduled game in Chicago. The Dodgers thumped Cincinnati 13-2. Milwaukee shaded Philadelphia 4-3. St. Louis took over fourth place with a 13-0 runaway over Pittsburgh.

Eddie Lopat checked the Orioles on three hits, including a home run by Bobby Young for his 11th victory. His Yankee support included homers by Yogi Berra, Hank Bauer and Irv Noren.

The White Sox jumped on the Senators for seven runs in the first two innings. Lefty Billy Pierce struck out 10 in one of his best performances of an injury-ridden season.

Boston put together three doubles, including one by Ted Williams, a walk, an infield single and a sacrifice fly for five runs in the fifth inning in shaving the Tigers' fourth-place margin to one percentage point.

The Dodgers, who hit four home runs Tuesday night in Cincinnati, smashed five in last night's rout of the Redlegs. Al Walker, the Dodgers' second-string catcher, hit a pair. Gil Hodges hit two and Carl Furillo one in support of Billy

Group Predicts Best Fishing in Sandusky Bay

COLUMBUS, Ohio (U. S. — Perch fishing in Sandusky Bay and other areas of Lake Erie is expected to be the best in the state over the weekend, the state wildlife division reported today.

Fishing generally has been fair throughout Ohio this week, the division indicated, and is expected to remain fair over the weekend.

Stream fishing has been poor the past few days, the division said, but lakes are clear and fishing has improved.

Outlook by sections:

LAKE ERIE — Yellow perch, between six and eight inches, have been running in Sandusky Bay. Good weekend spots are Battery Park, Cedar Point, Sandusky Waterfront, Bay Bridge, Johnson's Island, White's Landing, Willow Inn and the shipping channel.

NORTHWEST — Fair catfish fishing is reported in streams of Auglaize, Crawford, Defiance, Henry, Paulding, Wood, Van Wert and Wyandot counties. Fair catches of crappies and catfish are being taken from Lake St. Mary's, which is clear and slightly below normal level. Largemouth bass fishing is expected to be fair to poor in Oxbow and Lost Creek lakes.

NORTHEAST — Most reports of fishing success are coming from lakes. The best is at Guilford Lake where largemouth bass, bluegills, sunfish, bullheads and carp are being taken. Other good reports have come from Charles Mill, Clearfork, Mosquito and Berlin Reservoir.

CENTRAL, SOUTHERN — Most lakes are clear and fair catches of bass, bluegills and catfish are reported. Stream fishing is fair to poor. Smallmouth bass are being caught in Franklin County streams on soft craws and carp are coming from Big Darby.

'Roaring Grand' Dress Rehearsal Slated Today

By FRITZ HOWELL
VANDALIA, Ohio (U. S. — They hold the dress rehearsal today for the clay-target sport's greatest show at the 55th Grand American Trapshoot.

Today's event is the preliminary handicap, a 100-target affair in which the shooters are placed according to their ability from 17 to 25 yards back of the traps from which the targets emerge.

The contest, expected to attract more than 1,700 shooters, is patterned exactly after Friday's Grand American Handicap, the No. 1 event in trapshooting. The preliminary carries a guaranteed prize of $1,000 to the winner, but he may pick up an extra six or eight thousand in various purses.

Although the preliminary and the "Roaring Grand" are exactly the same, the difference in prestige is about the same as that between the 5th race at Louisville and the Kentucky Derby.

In 54 years only one man has been able to win both the preliminary and the Grand American in the same year. R. R. Barber of Paulina, Iowa, turned the trick in 1905 with 98 in the preliminary and 99 in the Grand.

The big clay target carnival wound up its 16-yard events yesterday by deciding its class championships. The 16-yard races covered 600 targets per entry and a total of 675,000 of the clays were thrown.

Yesterday's big star was Arnold Riegger, 34-year-old, 5-foot-5, 200-pound bachelor from Seattle, Wash. The poly-poly Riegger broke 400 targets at 16 yards yesterday, wrapping up the "champion of champions" title over 38 other state champions and adding the double A class laurel to his long string of victories.

He broke 200 extra targets without a miss after tying seven others in the champion of champions race and needed an extra 125 in a row to take the double A title after being deadlocked with five others at 200. The events were spread over two days.

At the end of the 600 targets at 16 yards, Julius Petty of Stuttgart, Ark., led in the overall picture with only one miss.

Fred Waldoek Jr., of Sandusky, Ohio, was close behind with only two misses in 600 tries.

Riegger, despite his sensational shooting yesterday, lost six of the 600-target total. Shootoffs do not count in the total misses.

The area in front of the half-mile firing line was mired recently for the first time in five years, and more than 200 tons of lead pellets were recovered. Approximately 60 tons of pellets are thrown at the flying clays here each year.

Strong winds upset the meet yesterday. A canopy and part of the roof of the ATA clubhouse were ripped off.

Several persons were injured. The most seriously injured was Fred Harlow of Newark, Ohio, winner of the 1908 Grand American Handicap. The 75-year-old veteran was knocked down when struck by a display stand tossed by the wind. He suffered elbow, shoulder, head and knee bruises.

Dave Kuenzli, Upper Sandusky Football Star, To Enter Ohio U.

The state's leading scholastic football scorer for 1953 will enroll at Ohio University this fall, the college announced today.

He is David Kuenzli, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kuenzli, of Upper Sandusky.

A 5-10 1/2-pound halfback and quarterback, Kuenzli scored 227 points for the Upper Sandusky High School team in his senior year.

His lowest single-game production came in the final game and on his 17th birthday, last Nov. 13. Nine points were chalked up by the speedy back in his team's 27-6 win over Carey.

For the season, Kuenzli scored 32 touchdowns, made 35 of 44 extra point attempts, gained 2,160 yards rushing for a 9.1 average and completed 34 of 58 passes for 607 yards.

Besides winning three football letters at Upper Sandusky, he also earned three in basketball as a guard, two in track where he ran the dashes, and one in baseball, playing third base.

Honors bestowed on the brown-haired lad for his football prowess in 1953 were all-state, all-league, most outstanding back in league, and all-county. He was also a member of the Northern Ohio All-Star team in 1954.

Leo Strang, an Ashland College graduate of 1949, was Kuenzli's

Mother Admits Throwing Her Baby Into Lake

BRAINERD, Minn. (AP) — A distraught mother who first reported her 6-week-old daughter missing broke down early today and admitted throwing the child into a lake near the family's small rural home.

Sheriff Roy Wickland said Mrs. Archie Sanders could give no reason for tossing tiny Janet Ruth, apparently still alive, into Pelican Lake. She first reported that she and two older daughters awoke from an afternoon nap yesterday to find the baby missing from her crib.

Wickland said the mother still was in semihysterical condition. Her statement was made at her father's rural crossroads store, where she had gone after reporting the child missing.

Wickland said Mrs. Sanders told him this story: She took the baby and her two other daughters, Phyllis, 5, and Sharon, 4, in the family car and drove over a back road to the lake. After parking the car 300 feet from the shore, she left the two girls in it and walked 300 feet to the lakeshore.

There she waded out up to her waist and then threw the baby "as far as I could."

Wickland said he and his deputies would start searching the lake at daybreak. Sanders, a carpenter, said he could not explain his wife's action. He was absent at work. Wickland said he was holding her without charge for further questioning when her condition improves.

WIDOW FLEECE
CINCINNATI (AP) — Two women pulled an old confidence game on Mrs. Margaret Burns, 67, a widow, and fleeced her out of $4,000 yesterday. They told her they found $33,000 in cash and bonds and would share the money with Mrs. Burns if she put up the $4,000 as a "good faith" token. She turned over the money, which was all but $700 of her bank account, but they never returned with her share of the "find," she lamented to police.

Union Objects To Marionites At Miamisburg

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — A union spokesman yesterday charged that Monsanto Chemical Co. had hired men from Marion, Ohio, to man positions vacated by 100 employees who struck the plant's Miamisburg Mound Laboratory last Aug. 12.

Henry A. Adkinson, international representative of Local 420, United Gas-Coke-Chemical Workers, CIO, said "scabs" were working at maintenance and operators jobs. He said he did not know how many "outsiders" were at work. Thomas Tierney, company administrative director, could not be reached for comment on Adkinson's statements.

Both union and management indicated yesterday no new negotiation sessions have been set up. The last session was a week ago.

According to company audits, the men ask 57 cents an hour wage increases and fringe benefits. Present wage scales were not revealed.

The plant is operated by Monsanto for the Atomic Energy Commission.

The whole probably is as smart as an elephant.

Fruit Desserts Are Ideal Last Course

Baked Pears With Light Orange Juice Syrup Pleases Guests

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Fruit desserts are in vogue. Maybe because we have so many weight-watchers about. Maybe because homemakers are discovering what Europeans have known for a long time: fruit takes the prize if you want a light and refreshing last course.

BAKED BARTLETT PEARS. With orange syrup and vanilla ice cream.

side down, they end up looking gorgeously inviting, their golden color heightened.

We served these orange-baked pears recently to guests, after a steak course, with no more embellishment than the syrup spooned over them. But other times we have accompanied them with a smooth-as-silk soft custard sauce or a scoop of vanilla ice cream. Try this recipe. We think you'll treasure it.

ORANGE-BAKED PEARS

Ingredients: 1 teaspoon grated orange rind, 1 cup strained orange juice, ¼ cup sugar, 4 Bartlett pears.

Method: Stir orange rind, orange juice and sugar together until sugar dissolves. Wash, halve and core pears. Place cut side down in baking dish (13½ by 7½ by 7½ is a good size if you use heat-resistant glass). Pour orange mixture over pears. Bake in moderate (375 degrees) oven, basting several times, until tender—about 35 minutes. Baste pears with syrup in pan occasionally while they cool. Serve at room temperature or chilled, using one or two pear halves for each serving. If pears are topped with vanilla ice cream, spoon the orange syrup over the ice cream. Makes 4 to 8 servings.

WHITE AND GOLDFRUIT BOWL
Ingredients: 1 medium-sized cantaloupe, one 11-ounce can mandarin oranges (packed in light syrup), 2 large Bartlett pears, 2 to 3 tablespoons grenadine or raspberry syrup.

Method: Cut cantaloupe in half; scoop out seeds. Cut balls out of melon using melon scoop or ½ teaspoon measuring spoon. (Dice fine the cantaloupe left after balls are made and use in a desert sauce if desired). Empty oranges and their syrup into a bowl; add cantaloupe balls. Wash, halve and core pears; slice in thin fan-shaped pieces into bowl. Add grenadine or raspberry syrup just before serving and mix gently. Makes 6 servings.

You'll find the grenadine syrup suggested for use in the White and Gold Fruit Bowl available in many large food markets. The raspberry syrup is available in specialty food shops; the best syrup of this sort we have ever tasted is imported from Germany and is made of pure raspberry juice and cane sugar.

Another pear dessert we should like to suggest is one we thought was most glamorous when we were very young. It is the famous concoction that simulates a bunch of grapes. To prepare it, cover the rounded side of a peeled pear half with softened cream cheese, then stud the cream cheese closely with halves of seedless grapes. Use a sprig of mint, or anything else you like from the garden or refrigerator, for stem and leaves. Although this dessert is not so stylish now as it was years ago, it is still fun to arrange and tastes good!

Murray, Ives Disagree Over NLRB Policy

WASHINGTON (AP) Sen. Murray (D-Mont) today assailed as "anti-labor" several recent decisions handed down by the National Labor Relations Board and predicted one of them would take labor "back to the days of the yellow dog contract."

Murray, senior Democrat on the Senate Labor Committee, led a losing fight last winter against confirmation of Albert C. Beeson, the third Eisenhower administration nominee on the five-member board.

Sen. Ives (R-NY), also a Labor Committee member, disagreed sharply with Murray's analysis of recent NLRB decisions. He said in a separate interview:

"The NLRB under the New and

"Fair Deals" tended to reflect the position of organized labor in many respects. The present board, with three of its five members named by President Eisenhower, seems to be trying to strike a balance between the powerful pressures of labor and management."

The disagreement between the two senators underlined difficulties Eisenhower may run into if, as he says he will, he asks congress anew for Taft-Hartley labor law revisions next year.

The Senate pigeonholed Eisenhower's plan for changing the law last spring. Home administration critics have charged since then that the GOP-appointed board majority has, through its decisions, made things tougher on labor.

"Yellow dog" contracts, now barred by law, required employees to renounce union membership. Recent research indicates that the common impression that athletes develop enlarged hearts and die young of heart disease is false.

Paris' Folies Bergere Cut From Church Tour

ANDOVER, England (AP)—The Rev. Ivor Machin has canceled 15 seats he booked to give his parishioners a glimpse of Paris' famously naughty Folies Bergere.

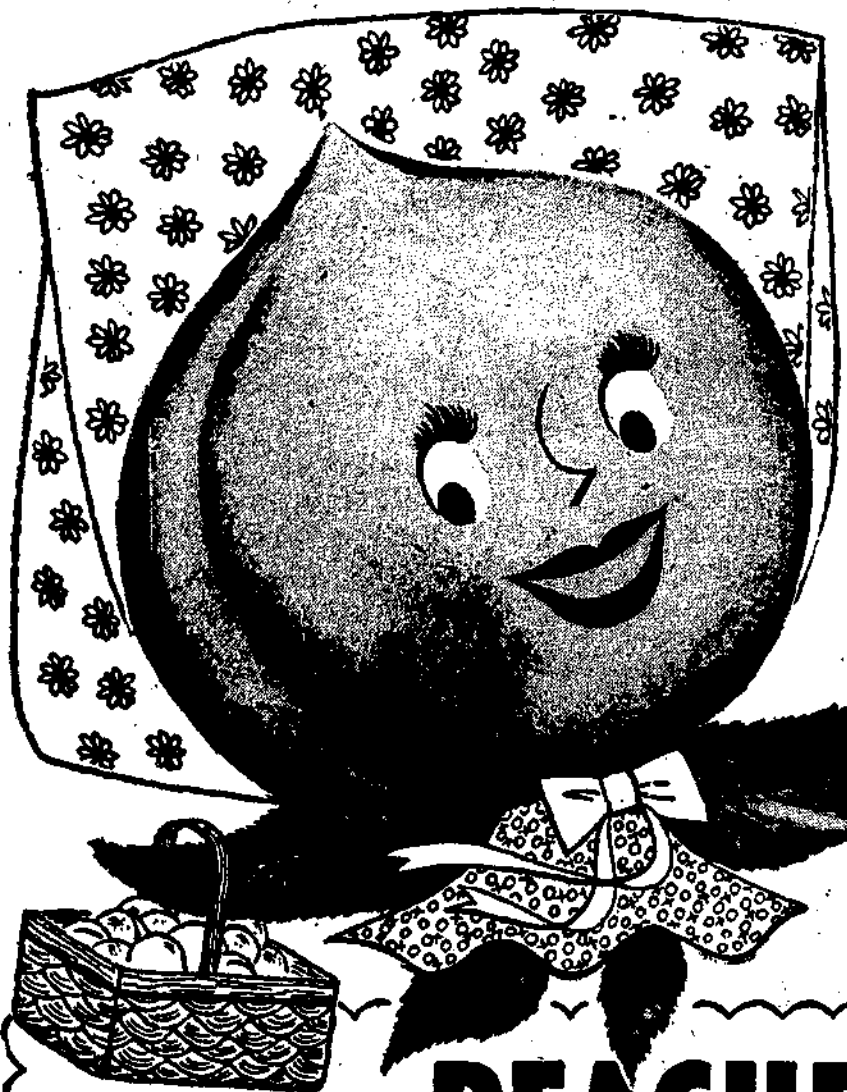

The cleric said he bought the tickets for the edification of his flock during a tour he will conduct to the French capital next month. But the newspapers got word of it and he began getting nasty letters.

"I acted in all good faith, but some of the letters were very abusive," he said sadly today. Earlier he had said the Folies were part of Paris and therefore should be on the grand tour.

Military warrants, horses, cows, oxen, cowbells, acres of land and even whiskey were used as mediums of exchange in the United States before the general use of currency, and bank notes.

Magic Peach Cream Pie

(Makes 8" single crust pie)

FILLING:
1/2 cup sugar 3 egg yolks
2 tablespoons cornstarch 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup cold water 1/2 cup sliced fresh peaches
1 1/2 cups condensed milk 1" single crust baked pie shell
1 cup water

MERINGUE:
3 egg whites 1/2 cup sugar

To prepare filling: Combine sugar, cornstarch and salt with Carnation-water mixture over low heat or in upper part of double boiler over hot water. Cook until slightly thickened (about 12-15 minutes), stirring occasionally. Add small amount of cooked custard mixture to egg yolks; mix and pour into remaining custard in saucepan over low heat. Cook 3-4 minutes longer. Add vanilla, fold in peaches and pour into baked pie shell.

To prepare meringue: Whip egg whites until frothy, gradually add sugar while continuing to beat, until meringue will hold in soft peaks. Place meringue on cooled pie filling, sealing meringue to edge of pie crust. Brown in moderate oven (350 deg. F) 10-12 minutes.

N.Y. Stock Quotations

NEW YORK (AP)—Selling that was largely centered in the aircrafts today sent the stock market lower in the early afternoon.

There were many losses between 1 and 2 points and some extended beyond that point. Gains usually were confined to stocks affected by special considerations. No selling congestion developed, but there was a definite spurt in Copper. Allied Chemical, Smith-business as prices fell away. Col-pace was brisk at a rate better than yesterday's 2,280,000 shares & Tube, General Motors, Montgomery Ward, General Dynamics, Boeing, and Bell Aircraft.

Invited To Testify Mitchell Asked To Prove His 'Raw Deal' Charges

WASHINGTON (AP)—Democratic National Chairman Stephen A. Mitchell, who calls the plan "a raw deal," will have the chance Sept. 2 to tell Congress what he finds wrong with the administration's controversial contract for private power in the Tennessee Valley area.

Rep. W. Sterling Cole (R-NY), chairman of the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee, wired Mitchell Tuesday an invitation to testify on "any evidence of malfeasance or impropriety."

Mitchell was being asked to appear, Cole told the Democratic chairman, "in view of your repeated intemperate charges against President Eisenhower in this matter."

Mitchell promptly replied he was "glad" to accept the invitation and added:

"I am troubled however by your telegram which characterizes my questions as 'intemperate charges.' This would seem to indicate that in advance of a hearing you have prejudged this case in such a way as to raise doubts over your ability to conduct an impartial hearing."

Mitchell's appearance before the committee seemed certain to mark a fresh round in the swirling dispute over President Eisenhower's order directing the AEC to contract with a private utility combine for power to be delivered over Tennessee Valley Authority lines to the Memphis, Tenn., area. TVA is to deliver power in turn to the AEC plant at Paducah, Ky.

The 107-million-dollar contract, which must still get the committee's okay, was a major issue during the Senate's marathon debate over new atomic energy legislation. Congress wound up okaying a provision which would specifically allow the contract.

Mitchell took up the issue in Chicago last week, intimating among other things that Eisenhower's friendship with golfer Bobby Jones influenced the award to the power combine, known as the Dixon-Yates group after its top officers.

Eisenhower said he rejected innuendoes that friendship was a factor, and Mitchell said he accepted Jones' statement that he did not discuss the matter with the President.

However, the Democratic chairman repeated his questions about the contract, saying it was going to "cost the public millions of dollars."

Husband Held in Death Of Wife, Two Children

GARDENTON, Man., (AP)—A young mother and her two children were strangled yesterday at a farm on the edge of this southern Manitoba town. Her husband was arrested and charged with murder.

The dead were Mrs. Olga Storoschuk, 24, Jean, 4½, and Brian, 2½.

Police said Walter Storoschuk, about 24, walked into a hardware store and told of the killing. No motive was determined.

Defendants' Rights Are Invaded by TV, Attorney Declares

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—An attorney for a burglary suspect charges that his client "was arrested, tried and convicted on a television program" before he was formally arraigned before a magistrate on specific charges.

The attorney, Garfield W. Levy, protested to Magistrate E. David Keiser yesterday in Central Police Court that this "was an invasion of the defendant's right of privacy."

The program to which Levy referred was telecast by a local station Tuesday night and depicted the activities of the so-called night squad.

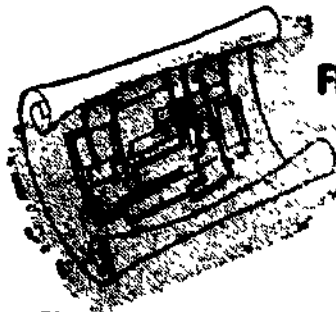

The program showed Al White, 21, and Samuel Hatchell, 22, as they were questioned after their arrest in the theft of a $3,718 payroll.

At a hearing today, both men were held without bail on burglary and larceny charges.

Keiser told Levy, who represents White, that he should properly bring up the matter about the TV showing at the time of the defendant's trial or before the grand jury.

Reds To Seek Test of Law

Fate of Communist Party
In U.S. Rests With Courts

WASHINGTON (U) — The Communist party in this country is on a rocky road now, but its fate is still uncertain even though President Eisenhower yesterday signed the act outlawing it.

That's because of the court fights which are now taking place and still lie ahead. Two questions may stick in people's minds because of the confusing way Congress passed this legislation in its closing days this month.

Does this new law mean the Communist party must now cease to exist? And does it make it a crime now to be a Communist or a member of the Communist party? The answer to both questions is no.

Rights Withdrawn

The law doesn't say the party must pass out of existence, although in time that may be the effect. It says the party is now deprived of rights, privileges and immunities which other organizations enjoy.

For example, it cannot under this law have candidates on a ballot in federal elections for Congress or the presidency. But it's up to the states whether they keep the party off their ballots in state elections.

Fuzziness begins at this point on what else the party loses. The law itself doesn't say specifically. Government lawyers are still studying the possibilities the law provides for action against the party.

The first government move when its lawyers have made up their minds, may be sudden. The party no doubt will fight in court then to have the new law thrown out as unconstitutional.

Court Action Underway

The party is already in court trying to get the McCarran Internal Security Act of 1950 declared unconstitutional. Under that act the government found the party to be a Moscow agent or "Communist action" group.

When such a finding is made, according to the McCarran Act, the party's officers and members must register with the government. They were ordered to. Instead, as expected, the party began its court fight on the McCarran Act.

The Supreme Court by next spring may give its verdict on whether the party members must register or the McCarran Act is unconstitutional. Party leaders have indicated they would never register, no matter what the verdict is.

Refusal Would Kill Party

If the court rules against them, they can be jailed and fined for not registering. Their refusal in that event would actually kill the party. Therefore by their refusal they themselves, not a law, would end the party.

If that fate overtook the party while it was fighting the law which Eisenhower signed yesterday, the second fight would end in mid-air. But there is something else the Communists may try.

They may inject the new law into their present fight on the McCarran Act, arguing that certain language in the new law fortifies their contention that the McCarran Act is unconstitutional.

As for the individual Communist, the new law doesn't say his membership in the party is a crime but that he must — if the government can prove his knowledge of the party's conspiratorial nature — register as a member of a "Communist action" organization.

Right there the new law overlaps with the McCarran Act's registration requirements and may confuse the court struggle. But this doesn't mean the government in the meantime is helpless to act against individual Communists.

It can and is going to. There is another law, called the Smith Act of 1940, under which the government can prosecute anyone who is a member of an organization having the purpose of overthrowing the government by force. The Smith Act does not mention the Communist party by name.

In such a prosecution the government would have to prove a defendant had knowledge of the organization's purpose. It will start its first trial under this section of the act this fall. The defendant will be Claude Lightfoot, a Communist leader of Chicago.

The party can be expected to fight this case — if Lightfoot is convicted — all the way up to the Supreme Court too, on constitutional grounds. The court has never ruled since it never had a test, on this section of the act.

But it has upheld the constitutionality of another section of the act which the government used to convict 81 Communists on different grounds conspiracy to teach forcible overthrow of the government. Under that section the government tried Communists in groups, not singly.

WILL SPEAK TO POSTMEN

CLEVELAND (U) — AFL President George Meany will speak Monday at the opening of the 39th biennial convention of the National Assn. of Letter Carriers. Other speakers during the week-long meeting will include assistant postmaster general Eugene Lyons and Sens. Olin D. Johnston of South Carolina and William Langer of North Dakota.

SOLDIER VICTIM OF POLIO

IRONTON, Ohio (U) — A soldier on leave yesterday became the first person in Lawrence County to contract polio in 1934. Pvt. Alfred Ferguson, 17, was stricken while visiting his mother here. He was sent back to Fort Knox, Ky., in an Army ambulance. Doctors said his condition is not serious.

Yugoslavians Accept Aid for Flood Victims

DENVER (U) — Communist Yugoslavia has accepted President Eisenhower's offer of a share in a four-million-dollar American relief program for European flood victims, the Summer White House announced Wednesday.

Eisenhower's offer of surplus food went several weeks ago to Danube River and tributary area countries, west and east of the Iron Curtain.

It was accepted earlier by Soviet-dominated East Germany, Hungary and Czechoslovakia. West Germany and Austria have also accepted.

Eisenhower's press secretary, James C. Hagerty, said the United States has requested the League of Red Cross Societies to get in touch with the Red Cross in Yugoslavia to work out details for providing food relief there.

The vacationing President has been putting in more work than play since he and Mrs. Eisenhower arrived from Washington Saturday. But he planned a comparatively light day at his Lowry Air Force Base office today.

Michigan Winning In Battle Against Invasion by Moths

LANSING, Mich (UP) — Federal and state agriculture department officials claim a first round victory in combating an outbreak of gypsy moth infestation in Michigan.

Discovery of gypsy moth larvae at more than a dozen locations in and near Lansing is the first west of Pennsylvania.

Financed by a $150,000 emergency appropriation voted by Michigan's "little legislature," which Gov. G. Mennen Williams called into special session, agriculture specialists and entomologists conducted aerial spraying of DDT over a 104,000-acre area.

The aerial attack on the moth pests covered the entire city of Lansing and surrounding countryside. Further moth warfare was planned.

Gypsy moths already have caused millions of dollars in damage in eastern states and U. S. Department of Agriculture officials said only quick preventive action saved the central Michigan area from a drastic quarantine.

The moths defoliate trees principally but also will destroy all plants. Experts said the DDT spray is the most effective remedy.

Michigan agriculture officials said they could not account for the sudden outbreak of gypsy moths in Michigan, but believed they might have been accidentally imported by a passing truck. They estimate that the infestation might have started two years ago in one small suburban area on the outskirts of Lansing. Experts said that if no control measures had been taken, the moths would have spread over all southern Michigan within another year.

Standing Float

SOUTH HAVEN, Mich. (U)—Most anyone can float, says Iver Johnson, but when you can float standing up you've accomplished something.

Johnson has been clocked floating in a vertical position for 20 minutes without twitching a muscle.

"It's 99 per cent control of the spine," said the 47-year-old retired accountant. "When the spine is straightened from its usual curved position to a perfect plumb line, you float vertically. Of course, the mind must be absolutely serene—otherwise you'd sink," he said.

Johnson swims about a mile out into Lake Michigan to practice. It took him 12 years to master it. "Think it's easy," says Johnson. "Try it some time."

Geese Flock Snubs Johnson Grass Diet

TUCSON, Ariz. (UP) — Geese lose their appetite for Johnson Grass when they can get food and water without having to work for them, according to testimony at a trial here.

The difficulties that resulted when geese were obtained to rid a cotton farm he managed of the troublesome Johnson Grass were described by John Phebus as he testified in his own behalf. Phebus brought suit for $8,000 damages against the Marana Plantations Inc., because he was dismissed for having spent "too much money" for supervision.

Phebus said dismissal followed his hiring of field hands to rid the farm of Johnson Grass that got out of hand when the geese failed to do the job.

So 100 water troughs and bags of grain were purchased to build up the geese for their job of grass-eating, reported to have been successfully tried in Texas. But once the geese got started feeding on grain, they lost interest in the grass, the plaintiff testified. He said they congregated around the water troughs while the grass grew out of control.

Plan a Party for Labor Day Weekend

Youngsters Will Applaud Spud-Stuffed Franks, Tasty Cupcakes

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

They may sail, they may swim, or they may play tennis. But whatever is on the sports agenda, you can be sure that when supper-time comes around they'll be interested in food. Yes, we're talking about teenagers. So if you are likely to have a group of youngsters at your house during the Labor Day weekend, you might like to try a menu that we have found meets with applause from lusty appetites.

I've noticed that my teen-age nephew and his friends are addicted to the same main course at their get-togethers: hamburgers or frankfurters. When I complained of the monotony of this fare, my nephew replied that since food was my profession, he would let me make some small variation on the same theme! His mother and I took him at his word and served these spud-stuffed frankfurters with his and his pals' full approval.

To go with the franks, be sure to have a pot of hot-dog relish and one of prepared mustard. A big bowl of sauerkraut is also a must; sprinkle it with finely grated carrot and garnish it with sprigs of water cress or parsley. Frankfurter rolls, split and buttered before heating will also be relished. Since these franks are knife-and-fork food, have paper plates on hand.

For dessert the youngsters will like Checkerboard Cupcakes, and we are giving you directions for putting them together.

A big ice-bucket full of cold drinks, for the cold beverage, will please everyone — and seem lavishly hospitable.

You might have some cans of popcorn on hand for the youngsters to prepare and munch during the evening. I find they also welcome bite-size shredded wheat or rice biscuits that have been toasted in butter or margarine and lightly sprinkled with salt. Use a large iron skillet for the toasting on top of the range; you can put about half a box of the cereal in at one time. Use low to moderate heat and stir often during the three minutes or so necessary for the toasting. A quarter cup of butter or margarine will be just right for three cups (about half a box) of the cereal.

SPUD-STUFFED FRANKFURTERS

Ingredients: 8 frankfurters, 3 medium-sized (about 1 pound) potatoes, ¼ cup hot milk, 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, ½ teaspoon salt, ¼ cup grated sharp cheddar cheese (packed down), paprika.

Method: Split frankfurters lengthwise, but do not cut entirely through. Cook peeled potatoes in boiling water until very soft; put through ricer. Beat in hot milk, butter, salt and cheese. Using about ¼ cup for each, stuff mashed potatoes into frankfurters. Run the times of a fork over potatoes; sprinkle with paprika. Broil about 6 inches from high heat until hot through and potatoes are lightly browned; watch carefully because this may take only 5 minutes or so. Serve at once. Frankfurters may be stuffed ahead of time and refrigerated; broiling time will be about the same.

CHECKERBOARD CUPCAKES

Ingredients: 9 chocolate or gingerbread cupcakes, 9 white cupcakes, 3 tablespoons butter or margarine, 2 cups sifted confectioners' sugar, 2 squares (2 ounces) unsweetened chocolate (melted over hot water), 4 tablespoons (about) undiluted evaporated milk.

Method: Put cupcakes on a large board and cut each in half. Cream butter and sugar; beat in melted chocolate and enough evaporated milk to make good spreading consistency. (Makes about 1 cup.) Join one half of a chocolate cupcake together with one half of a white cupcake with about half a tablespoon of the frosting. Now halve the cupcakes again, cutting across the colors so that each half is part white and part chocolate. Join cupcake halves with more frosting so the white and chocolate quarters alternate.

Civil, Military Files Piling Up At Two Centers

ST. LOUIS (UP) — Have you been a government worker at any time since 1860 or been in the Army since 1912? If so, Uncle Sam has a case history of you filed in two mammoth record centers here.

A civilian center spreads over 328,000 square feet of floor space, employs 260 persons and is run by the General Services Administration.

A military center occupies 330,000 square feet and keeps 1,600 workers busy.

Combined, the two centers house more than 64,000,000 records, including one that states that William F. Cody, better known as "Buffalo Bill," was hired as a government guide at $125 a month on Oct. 5, 1886.

On top of this staggering amount of records, the civilian center expects to receive 41,000,000 more records soon from the post office and the civil service commission. And the military center is preparing to receive 5,000,000 Navy and Marine records when the unification of the defense paper empire is complete.

Although new records come into the military center at the rate of a mile-high stack each month, Col. Harold H. Newman, chief of the center, says there is no such thing as a dead record.

The centers are such treasure chests of information that demands are huge and continuous. The military center receives up to 35,000 mail inquiries weekly, while the civilian counterpart takes care of more than 2,000 inquiries daily and expects 850,000 during the coming fiscal year.

Discretion in answering inquiries is the rule at both establishments. Each has its own regulations, but government agencies, naturally, have access to all files.

The civilian center has furnished congressional committees with the records of such headline figures as Alger Hiss, Harry Dexter White, and even the executed atom bomb spy, Julius Rosenberg.

The subject of a record can get available information with the exception of some medical data. Usually at the civilian center questions concentrate on employment, pay and retirement benefits.

At the military center, many inquiries are for information for social security claims, hospitalization and military funerals.

Connecticut's violent death rate is an annual 44 per 100,000 compared to 58 per 100,000 for the nation.

Ingenuity Proves Better Than Cash

HENNIKER, N. H. — (UP) — Funds just weren't available to embellish the scholastic curriculum at the local high school, enrollment about 125.

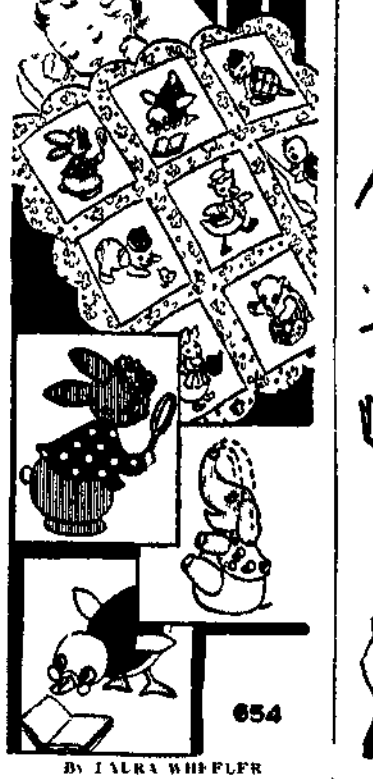

The school board in this town of less than 2,000 wanted the very best for students but could not justify additional expense by incorporating new courses. So with peculiar small-town cooperation, residents decided to help, without incurring expense.

One parent started a volunteer class in basic commercial art. The response was great and it wasn't long before pupils were making all the school posters. A local organization sponsored a contest with a prize going to the outstanding art student.

The wife of a faculty member started a social dancing course. Many students wanted to learn typing. Three parents each took a class. Typewriters were supplied by the joint efforts of the school board, merchants and women's organizations.

When two of the typing "teachers" had to discontinue their volunteer work, the third offered to take charge of all three classes. And at the end of the year, she proudly reported that many of the youngsters were typing better than 35 words per minute.

Red Probers Plan Shift to Cleveland For 2-Day Hearing

CLEVELAND (U) — The House subcommittee on Communist aggression will open a two-day hearing here tomorrow.
Ed M. O'Connor, a staff director for the subcommittee said about 15 witnesses "who can give personal eyewitness testimony" will be called.
"We shall explore the methods by which the Communists took over power in Hungary, the measures they have used to keep people under control, life under communism and what it does to freedoms," O'Connor added.
Rep. Alvin M. Bentley (R-Mich.) will serve as chairman of the hearing and will be assisted by Rep. Feighan, Cleveland Democrat. Whether other committee members will be present is still uncertain.

The committee has been holding sessions in New York City.

PROTEST WITH TOMATOES
BOSTON (U) — A large, glass-enclosed portrait of President Eisenhower was splattered with overripe tomatoes in the Federal Building yesterday in what, police said, appeared to be a protest of his veto of a 5 per cent pay raise for government workers.

Witnesses Not Revealed

McCarthy, Counsel Silent On Censure Defense Plan

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP) — The No. 1 puzzle as a special Senate committee prepares for its hearings next week on the proposed censure of Sen. McCarthy: Who are the witnesses going to be — if any — for or against McCarthy, besides the Wisconsin Republican himself?
McCarthy will be a witness. He must be to defend himself against charges that his conduct should be censured by the full Senate.
But Sen. Watkins, Utah Republican and chairman of the committee, hasn't indicated he knows of a single other witness to call.
McCarthy's attorney, Edward Bennett Williams, was asked last night if he would call any witnesses. He declined to say now what he intends to do.
Three senators — Flanders (R-Vt), Morse (Ind-Ore) and Fulbright (D-Ark) — made 46 charges against McCarthy, some of them overlapping.
Based on Records
These charges, they said, provided grounds for censure. But their charges were not based on personal encounters with McCarthy. They were using Senate and other records involving McCarthy's conduct and offered them as explanation of why he should be censured.
Watkins has said he doesn't intend calling any of the three—even though McCarthy asks that they be called—unless they have first-hand knowledge of his charges.
And yesterday, with start of the hearings only a week away, Watkins asked Flanders, Morse and Fulbright for help in suggesting witnesses or material pertinent to the hearings.
It seems unlikely McCarthy or his lawyer would be content to answer charges, based on Senate records, without demanding the right to confront and examine the people, including senators, who were part of the events which became records.
On Different Ground
McCarthy is on different ground here than he was in hearings last spring on his dispute with the Army.
There he was tackling the Eisenhower administration, or a part of it, but his quarrel was only with a few individuals.
But in this situation—where his Senate foes wanted him rebuked for his conduct as a senator—his conduct at this hearing conducted by other senators—may have a bearing on whether he is censured by the full Senate.

Grange in Morrow Buys New Building

MOUNT GILEAD — Adams Grange, formerly Gilead Grange, will soon move into the new home, the former Universalist Church building in Mount Gilead.
The building is located at the corner of Cherry and North St. across from the First Presbyterian Church. The church has not been used for a number of years. Purchase of the building was made, from the Universalist Church Inc. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Adams, charter members of Gilead Grange, gave $6,000, the purchase price of the building. The name of the grange will be changed to Adams Grange in their honor.
Members of the grange had launched a campaign several weeks ago to raise money for the purchase of the building. Addition-al funds raised in the drive will be used for necessary remodeling of the church into the grange hall.

HPM PICNIC SLATED
MOUNT GILEAD — The annual Hydraulic Press Manufacturing Co. family picnic will be held Saturday, Sept. 11, from 11:30 a.m. until 5 p.m. at the Morrow County fairgrounds. Penalty of Leadership

Anti-United States riots in Brazil after the collapse of the Vargas regime were to have been expected. So was the role of Brazilian Communists in helping to start them. Trouble is the worldwide specialty of Communists.

Wherever there is trouble, they move in to exploit it. They choose as targets for the anger of the mobs they know so well how to organize anything connected with the United States. They have no time to waste on any other country. Their battle is with the citadel of freedom.

They never lack recruits. The penalty of leadership is misunderstanding and hatred. In every country of the world there are vast numbers of desperate, unhappy and resentful people who can be persuaded that the United States should be the symbol of everything they dislike.

It is no trouble to find people who can be persuaded to turn all their stored-up resentment against the one country so large and powerful it is never out of sight or out of mind. Although coffee consumers in the United States have underwritten Brazil's economic structure for a generation, what could be easier than to turn against the United States the wrath of Brazilian masses for the collapse of the price squeeze undertaken by the Vargas administration? Vargas, himself, stooped to this in the note he is purported to have written before he died with a bullet in his heart.

The penalty of leadership is not easy to bear. But it must be remembered that not all Brazilians are taken in by Communist trouble-makers; that in every country where the Communists are busy there is a majority that favors the United States and admires it for its leadership. Otherwise, Communists would not need to work so hard to smear and misrepresent the one country on earth that would be swamped with immigrants if all barriers were removed.

Government of Law

Educated guesswork on what may lie ahead for the anti-Communist law passed in the closing days of the 83rd Congress indicates a long and indecisive legal battle. The Communists, themselves, will be in the thick of the battle, using the Constitution and the statutory laws to try to preserve their right to work for the overthrow of the government of the United States.

There will be the same ordeal by legality that dragged on for nine months in Federal Judge Medina's court in 1949, when the first 11 Communists were convicted, on charges of conspiracy to teach and advocate violent overthrow of the United States government. There will be appeals and ultimately there will be a ruling by the U. S. Supreme Court. Nothing could be more infuriating than this leisurely misuse of rights guaranteed in a government of law to destroy the self-same rights under a government of executioners.

Yet, this is the way a government of law preserves itself—by giving the sanctuary of protection to everyone who seeks it. Ultimately, the Communist conspiracy will be deprived of all the rights it seeks to take away forcibly from its intended victims. But it will be deprived by due process of law.

That is the practice that distinguishes a government of law from a government of men. In the latter, rights can be granted and taken away by the whims of men, including even the right to be alive.

Would Formosa Be Like Korea?

As speculation about what might happen on Formosa picks up momentum, a question comes to mind:

Would Formosa be like Korea?

Would U. S. militarists go into action there with one hand tied behind their backs by political restraints, as they did when their own government refused to let them destroy military aviation bases north of the Yalu River in Korea?

On Aug. 19, Gen. Mark Clark, who was sent before the Senate subcommittee to investigate the administration of the Internal Security Act, "I did not have the authority to launch a general offensive designed to defeat the enemy," he testified. "I could not bomb or destroy the numerous bridges that were across the Yalu River and over which the enemy constantly poured his trucks and his munitions and his killers."

Gen. Clark also explained the restraints that prevented the bombing of air bases in Manchuria. He said he felt sure such decisions were made in the State Department, for reasons that were not clear to him as a general in the field. "We should fight to win," he declared, "and we should not go in for a limited war where we put our limited man power against the unlimited hordes of Communist man power which they are willing to expend lavishly and do. . . If fight we must, let's go in there and shoot the works for victory with everything at our disposal."

The first intimation Americans had that they were not fighting to win in Korea came through the recall of Gen. MacArthur, who disagreed with Washington's policy. Gen. Clark inherited the same situation when it was his turn to go to Korea. Would it be passed along to some other general if war flared in Formosa? The American people will have to know.

Eisenhower's Naivete

By David Lawrence

Speeches Have Little Political Value for GOP

President Eisenhower made a very good political speech at Denver—that is, good if he himself were running for office this autumn. But it was of little value politically if he really wants to see a Republican congress elected next November.

Eisenhower did not once mention the Republican party or speak of the necessity of electing a Republican Congress. This may have been because it was an unpaid television broadcast which was supposed to be non-political or the networks would have to give the Democrats equal time.

This, however, is not the first time such a significant omission by the President has been noted.

Every utterance he has made for several months—including his addresses to the national gathering of Citizens for Eisenhower and his recent talk at the Illinois State Fair—has been marked by seeming unwillingness to come out explicitly and ask the people to continue the Republican party control of both houses of Congress in the next election. It's like a salesman who talks at length but never identifies his product to the prospect.

Eisenhower acts like a man who is either ashamed of his party or is afraid to take the offensive. As a military man, he must know that a general who is entirely on the defensive and never takes the offensive cannot win, especially when the other side has been on the offensive for many months.

There is abundant evidence that 80 per cent of the voters make up their minds how to vote well in advance of the campaign itself. Much valuable time, politically speaking, has already been lost by the President.

MAYBE EISENHOWER, who really cannot be expected to learn politics in a short time but who ought at least to talk with people who do know politics, has a mistaken impression about what he is up against this autumn. If the election were held tomorrow, the Republican party would suffer its worst catastrophe since 1910, when the House of Representatives went Democratic for the first time since 1892.

There is a strange parallel today to what happened in 1910. William Howard Taft, father of Sen. Taft, was the Republican president, having been elected in 1908 by a big majority of electoral votes. He was a jovial, good-natured individual and liked to play golf at Augusta, Ga.

He likewise was inexperienced in politics, having never run for office before he was elected president. He had spent most of his career on the bench. He made the mistake of thinking that elections could be won with a divided Republican party.

Having long been a federal judge, he was not partisan-minded and did not make political speeches as such though he traveled more than any man in the presidency up to that time. By 1912 he woke up and made some very good speeches, but it was too late.

It was the "liberal" wing in 1910, led by Theodore Roosevelt, which started to do the dividing of the Republican party. The art of reconciliation, which is so important in politics, was lost on the President, who is expected to be leader of his party and not of just a faction.

IT TOOK A DECADE for both factions of the Republican party to learn the hard way that fighting each other isn't as effective as fighting the opposing party on a united front.

Today the division in the Republican party is not measurable in exact percentages but, even if it be conceded that the defection is only 20 per cent, this is too much for safety.

It could mean the largest stay-at-home vote in history on the part of Republicans—something that showed up in the election of Democrats for two congressional seats in New Jersey and Wisconsin in 1953.

Since the death of Sen. Taft, the President has listened almost entirely to the so-called "liberal" wing of his party and has spent a good deal of his time unwittingly helping to alienate regular Republicans. He bungled the anti-Communist issue.

He pulled the rug from under Attorney General Brownell when the latter started an offensive on the Harry Dexter White issue.

As for the mistakes of the Democrats, he has told his press conferences repeatedly that he wanted to let bygones be bygones, which is one way to commit political suicide under the American two-party system. For the electoral votes against and not for things, and it is the customary strategy to remind the people of what they voted against in the previous election.

SOME OF THE PRESIDENT'S advisers seem to be obsessed with the idea that the campaign can be won by "independents" plus "liberal" Republicans, on the theory that the Republican regulars will vote for the ticket anyhow.

They visualize the "independent" as a voter who in a judicial mood passes judgment on all the issues and listens to pious speeches on the radio and television. They don't realize that there are "switches" and "stay at homes" in politics who are affected by deep-seated emotional reactions.

The job of Eisenhower, if he wants a Republican congress, is to persuade the Republican regulars to go to the polls. Many of them feel now that the Democrats, with their conservative Southern backing, and the Northern Republican conservatives can do a better job for the country as a coalition than if the "liberal" Republicans who have made President Eisenhower their political captive remain in the saddle.

It's a sad state of affairs for the Republican party and, unless the President faces the facts realistically and gets busy in the next few weeks, he will go down in history as experiencing the worst midterm defeat of any president in 50 years.

Today the unpalatable truth is that the only unresolved question to be settled is not who will win the November elections, but how big the Democratic margin is to be. (N. Y. Herald Tribune)

Keeping Cool

By TRUMAN TWILL

The first air-conditioning I ever enjoyed was in the milk cooler of the neighborhood dairy owned and operated by the father of my friend Glenn. On humid August days, Glenn and I would slip in there, leaving the heavy wooden door ajar and cool off while quaffing a bottle apiece of free milk.

The next air-conditioning was in the basement of the barny old farm house where I spent many summers. The dirt floor was always damp. The air was cool. Old Shep, the dog of all work, was smart enough to go down there to cool off and eventually I was smart enough to go down there with him.

My next experience with air-conditioning was in the ice house of the Fitzgerald Brothers Fuel & Ice Co., where I worked the summer before going to college. It was the theory at that time—and may still be the theory—that coaches preferred ice men to one.

The ice house was a vast, airy, rambling structure with sawdust-filled walls and contained the ice harvest from two winters before. The winter before there had been no harvest. Lying snug and secure under mountains of sawdust, were hundreds of tons of aging ice. They gave off a deep chill despite their blanket of insulation.

At that time there was no mechanical air-conditioning, nothing with moving parts, except palm leaf fans and pasteboard substitutes. I can remember church services when a hundred or more fans would be winging back and forth like the premonitory fluttering of angel wings. It was a wonderful effect. Moved the air as well as the spirit.

The first contraptions for circulating air by mechanical means were viewed askance. It was a sure bet the cat would stick a paw in it, the dog would cut off his nose and the kids would mash their fingers. All these things happened, until a new generation had learned about electric fans. Years later, when the first contraptions for cooling the air before it was circulated were installed in movie houses, it was a foregone conclusion that mankind some day would regret this lapse into decadence. The human body, it was argued, could not be expected to withstand the shock of such violent changes in temperature. Man was meant to suffer in the summer-time.

But the human body could and did withstand the changes. It thrived on them. For the last three days, while perspiration has trickled down my back and a clammy humidity has blanketed me like a bad conscience, I have been thinking about the miracle of air-conditioning that has materialized out of nowhere in my lifetime.

I have been thinking that if some way hadn't been devised to cool off people in hot weather as well as to heat them up in cold weather this busy civilization would be unable to keep in stride. I have been thinking that by the year 2000 A.D. it will be considered as important to maintain the efficiency of workers in summer as it is in winter.

These things grow as they go. The fastest-growing and fastest-going business in the country for the last few years has been air-conditioning. It has been as logical as central heating. And when I think of that milk cooler where Glenn and I used to quaff the free milk while leaning against a cake of ice, I think air-conditioning has been a long time coming.

Target Practice

By BILL VAUGHAN

John Hannah, assistant secretary of defense, says the Army must have the manpower to meet a threat by Russia, which is "the only war that counts." This has long been a familiar doctrine at West Point, where "we coach can lose all the other games as long as he beats Navy."

Bugs Don't Bother Him

Hurricanes' 'Busy Season' Just Ahead

By Harry Lever

The United States Air Force, Navy and Weather Bureau are now fighting a perennial menace which has a destructive potential far beyond that of an atom bomb. This menace is the hurricane.

Airborne hurricane hunters are already on the alert, because the season for these giant disturbances has opened and will run through November. Hurricanes Alice and Barbara, only a week or two ago, blew themselves out over the Gulf of Mexico without doing any appreciable damage.

But the next one, to be called Carol, might slap right into the coastline with serious results. It's happened before.

Florida, in particular, and the whole Eastern Seaboard will be threatened by the string of wild tropical storms. People in Miami, the Keys and on the Gold Coast of the Florida peninsula are ready to batten down the storm doors as soon as they hear the weatherman's dreaded advisory: "An intense low cell with a counterclockwise movement is anticipated."

That means a hurricane is on the way. Nobody knows exactly how the "trigger" which activates a hurricane originates, according to T. R. Tannehill, assistant chief of the Weather Bureau.

Sometimes the big storms start with cloud buildups in the Caribbean, forming over the warm water. They also have been known to originate off the Cape Verde Islands, in the Atlantic ocean off the coast of French West Africa.

THE CLOUDS may be, at first, of the puffy, cumulus type, piled up for miles and miles like a giant's portion of cauliflower. Loaded with unstable air masses, they may darken ominously and gather into long stretches of cumulo-nimbus rain clouds, driven by violent air movements which flow in all directions.

Quite often out of a situation like this "easterly waves" move into the tormented area, which sometimes measures as much as 50 to 100 miles in diameter.

The hurricane now is a big storm almost before it starts, with high velocity winds circulating as it develops. The rotation of the earth partly is responsible for the counterclockwise motion which accompanies the disturbance, Tannehill says.

Every hurricane, Alice, Barbara, Carol (the Air Force designates them with girls' names in alphabetical order of their sequence in the season; has its own peculiarities, just like a woman. But general conclusions may be made once the titanic whirlpools leave their spawning grounds. Direction and speed often can be predicted. The older a hurricane gets, the quicker it moves.

The Air Weather Service of the Air Force, with headquarters at Andrews Air Force Base, Md., works with the Navy in the hurricane-hunting job.

AWS maintains year-around operations at Miami, much of it in cooperation with Grady Norton, the United States Weather Bureau's hurricane expert there.

BOTH THE SERVICES have specific and divided areas of responsibility in the Caribbean. AWS handles the section between Bermuda and Puerto Rico, a notorious breeding ground for the giant gales, while the Navy patrols the Gulf of Mexico and the Caribbean proper.

Hurricanes can't be eliminated or prevented, at their havoc can be minimized if people are forewarned. In the Keys, anti-hurricane measures are practically a science, and the science is logical. Residents evaluate and move en masse to Miami.

The AWS hunters are located at Kindley Air Force Base in Bermuda. Flight "A" of AWS's 53rd Weather Reconnaissance Squadron daily receives a teletyped message from the Air Force liaison office in Miami asking them what's cooking for the next 24 hours.

Sometimes this advisory is given by overseas telephone when an immediate storm report is requested. In that case a reconnaissance airplane, a Boeing WB-29, will be diverted immediately from its daily prearranged track of weather observation, and right into the storm area. It flies directly into the "eye" of the hurricane to observe its actions and probable course.

Meanwhile the Navy, with its own hurricane center at Opa Locka Marine Air Station, near Miami, is also on the job, advising naval and marine installations and ships at sea.

When weathermen believe a hurricane is brewing, the Air Force's hurricane-liaison officer in Miami goes on a "battle-round-the-stations" footing.

REPORTS POUR IN from the plane at the hurricane's eye. The Miami hurricane warning center busily computes probable effects. Teletypes click out the news to inform government agencies, private fliers and the public.

Men in charge of plotting the maps of the storm's course also step up their activity. Sometimes as many as 30 different daily charts are required to keep up with a brewing or actual hurricane, as well as hourly chart service when the weather cauldron approaches land from its usual Caribbean lair. This compares to an average of 10 charts during the course of a whole normal day.

The experts are hoping that Carol is as gentle as the name sounds. They've got plenty to cope with—Dorothy, Evelyn, Florence, Grace, Harriet and probably Isabella.

A Real Storybook Cruise

By MARK DANA

The very brief space which American newspapers can give to the 12-day Mediterranean cruise of European royalty, as guests of the King and Queen of Greece, is sufficient to stimulate the imagination of commoners who have dozed on fairy tales and still day dream about kings and queens, princes and princesses, dukes and duchesses and lesser folk of an era gradually waning.

On board the royal Grecian yacht went many of such titled nobility, many still among the recognized elite of their countries, others who now are has-beens or, due to kingly lineage, are just pretenders to thrones long abolished.

Nothing like such a concentration of bluebloods has been assembled since the coronation of Queen Elizabeth in London, and no doubt the reigning monarchs, their spouses, their princely sons and daughters, and their assorted relations enjoyed a chance to get away from ordinary folks and to compare notes sadly on the way the world is disintegrating into kingless democracy.

The cruise gave marriageable young men and women of the crown set a chance to look one another over for possible marital alliances, although no doubt some of the princesses are not as beautiful as those of the fairy stories, and perhaps some got fearfully seasick, further handicapping their romantic appeals.

No doubt Communists jeered at this highly-restricted cruise and muttered dark thoughts about the whole boatload of them sinking, which of course is a very naughty way to think or talk.

It was a good-neighborly cruise, of course, albeit quite on the snooty side—a sort of proud and yet pathetic reminder to non-bluebloods that there still exist (even if financially and politically precariously) persons born to the purple who are pretenders to the Divine Rights of Kings, even though royal sceptres in these times are becoming dulled and corroded.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

TV or Not To TV

Whether to permit radio or TV coverage of publicly conducted hearings of the U. S. Congress is still under debate by the Senate Rules Committee. The fans are strangely unconcerned. Senators who are opposed argue that TV gives hearings a circus or sideshow atmosphere; those in favor say the public has a right to see its legislators in action if only to get proof that not all the bad actors on the video screen are professionals. We line up the arguments for and against in more detail:

ARGUMENTS IN FAVOR:
1. TV coverage gives every citizen a chance to see what his representatives are doing and decide whether the operation would look more effective done in cowboy costumes, clown costumes or bathing suits.

2. It admits senators into the living rooms of America where their behavior can be compared with that of children, the neighbors and any guests who have had too many cocktails.

3. TV makes it clear whether our government is in the hands of capable, dignified public servants or refugees from the National Vaudeville Artists Association.

4. It gives the people government play by play and provides much of the suspense it gets out of wrestling matches, "Dragnet" routines, quiz programs and ball games.

ARGUMENTS AGAINST:
1. If encouraged, TV coverage will in time find senators opening proceedings with "Away we go!" demanding music for their entrance lines into debates, and permitting chairmen to preside on cow ponies.

2. It could lead to all the angles of TV showmanship, including a frequent introduction of an orchestra leader for no good reason, a change of scenery with each new witness and perhaps a commercial, in which a chairman would say, "When you go to your dealer for this auto say that Sen. Whoozits sent you."

3. The realization that a camera is on him changes the character and behavior of most any man; but with senators it's easier.

4. Give TV an inch, and before you know it, there will be video coverage of Ike's golf game, Mamie's housekeeping and restaurant arguments between congressmen over which one picks up the check.

5. TV can develop a class of public servants distinguished only for a weird profile, a winning smile, dimples and a few good gags.

6. Video coverage can make the most important edict of any senator's "Send me up a shirt that screams wolf." And make all his probes secondary to "Am I in focus?"

7. It can kill Howdy-Doody.
8. Ultimately no senator will show up anywhere without his ukelele and a girl and boy musical act, and senatorial proceedings of the gravest nature will be halted for demonstrations of a new cake-mix or a chart showing the sugar content of a glass of beer.

Congressmen who have been checking on beer commercials on TV declare them in bad taste and urge that they be curbed or cut out. What do they want to do, kill interest in baseball telecasts? Seriously, however, the beer commercials on radio and TV are going pretty far and it is hard these days to escape the idea that baseball and hops are not of the same fabric or that boxing is not closely related to the bung starter. In one telecast the announcer has an icebox full of beer at his side, and his Adam's apple as he gulps down bottle after bottle is becoming one of the best known "acts" on video.

The man who invented the wooden golf tee, or at least first introduced it on a big scale, died the other day. Remember away back when there was a sandbox on every tee?

"On the Waterfront," a new movie thriller, depicts crime along the waterfront so violently that Elmer Twitchell took a rear seat so he wouldn't get involved. . . Says his bag of popcorn struck him in the dark, nevertheless.

John Masfield, famous poet, once worked as a day laborer in the Yonkers, N. Y., carpet plant which owners say they will close down.

Canada has agreed to serve on the three-nation committee to see that the Reds play fair, on the Indochina truce terms, despite the fact that Poland, as a member, can veto any unanimous agreement on any big issue. . . Always an optimist, eh?

Girl Scouts Leave on Washington Trip

A SIX-MONTH PROJECT of a group of Marion senior Girl Scouts to raise funds for a trip to Washington, D. C., will be climaxed tonight when the girls depart for their vacation.

The girls are members of Troop 2, sponsored by the city-wide King's Daughters organization. The troop leaders will accompany the girls and driving the automobiles on the four-day trip to the nation's capital will be Mrs. Carol Rowley and Miss Micky Carpenter.

To raise the needed money for expenses, the girls have literally been "Jacks of all trades" for the past six months. They first discussed plans for the project in March and since then have been busy working for various people of the city with all money earned going into the fund for the trip.

The girls undertook spring housecleaning jobs for Marion homemakers, mowed lawns for a number of families, and all sorts of odd jobs. They also made and hand painted plaques which they sold.

The six girls believe they have the distinction of being the first Girl Scout troop in the city to accomplish such a project.

A complete tour of Washington is planned, along with surrounding points of interest. They will stay at the Harrington Hotel in the capital city.

Comfort Angle Gets Attention At State Fair

COLUMBUS, Ohio (U)—Come on in. The fair's fine. The Ohio State Fair, that is.

Gates swing open tomorrow for a whopping family affair with more comfort for the older folks this year and a lot more whiz for the kids.

State Fair Manager Sam C. Cashman isn't fooling about that comfort angle.

In the preview spotlight are more benches in more shady spots, and plenty of picnic tables.

New drinking fountains have been installed; better ventilation of exhibition buildings has been provided; fresh paint brightens up the bandstands, and there are additional rest rooms.

100 Acres of Parking

And 100 acres of parking space will be marked out north of 17th Ave. Parking will be directed by the state highway patrol.

Gates open at 6 a. m., EST, tomorrow for the eight-day frolic. Assembled on the grounds are Ohio's prime livestock, some of its finest home and garden products plus a circus, carnival rides, and grandstand shows.

Included in the grandstand specialties will be harness racing with the featured Governor's Cup event set for Thursday, Sept. 2.

The fair traditionally opens with Youth Day. At 9 a. m. Gov. Frank J. Lausche will preside at the dedication of the new youth building.

Here will be centered all housing, eating space, exhibit and recreation facilities for the junior fair enthusiasts. The center can accommodate about 1,200. It will remain in year-round use.

Band concerts and parades also are scheduled opening day.

Sunday, Aug. 29, will be Armed Forces Day. Ohio's famous 37th Division will be on view with both Gen. Leo Kreber and Gen. Robert Beighler attending.

Fires Day Sunday

Sunday is also Press-Radio-TV Day. "Flying farmers," industrial and business leaders also will be honored during fair time.

Night horse shows will be featured daily beginning at 7:30 p. m. Classes include hunters, jumpers, saddle horses, fine harness and ponies.

The junior fair will provide tractor rodeos. Another highlight will be the crowning of the Future Farmers of America queen. There will be round and square dancing and group singing.

Mother Admits She Attempted To Kill Child, 3

ROCKFORD, Ill. (AP)—A 3½-year-old girl was reported near death in St. Anthony Hospital today and deputy sheriffs said her mother admitted beating her with a claw hammer.

The deputies quoted the mother as saying she hammered the child on the head and body last night because she wanted to "offer the baby to God" rather than let her husband have the child.

The deputies said the mother, Mrs. Maxine Gilbertson, 29, was separated from her husband Grover. Their daughter Angela suffered skull fractures and severe lacerations on her face and body.

Deputies Joe Ferona and Mike Isparro found the child in a pool of blood in her crib in a bedroom of the Gilbertson home in suburban Loves Park. A blood-stained hammer was on the floor, they said.

They said Mrs. Gilbertson had telephoned the sheriff's office and reported the attack on the child.

The deputies said Mrs. Gilbertson in an oral statement related that her husband had tried to take custody of their daughter. They said Gilbertson yesterday filed a $1,500 suit against Loves Park police officials, charging false arrest.

They said Mrs. Gilbertson had had him arrested Sunday night and he had been held in jail overnight.

She was held without charge today.

Sunbathing Club Members Freed of Nudism Charge

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Charges of nudism, brought after a plane-riding policeman spotted two couples in the woods, were dismissed yesterday by a justice of the peace.

Justice Emmett Kirkendall ruled "the county didn't prove a thing" to support its charges against the two couples and another man.

Sgt. William Sloan, who spotted the couples near here, admitted his plane was traveling 80 miles an hour and he couldn't be certain they were entirely unclothed.

Sloan, after seeing the four persons in the woods, radioed fellow officers on the ground to close in on a sun bathing club in nearby White Horse.

But when they got there, they found only Clinton Ery, 37, wearing just his shoes and nonchalantly raking the ground.

The charges against Ery were dismissed because he wasn't seen nude in the presence of two or more persons of the opposite sex. This is required in Ohio to prove nudism.
